The Parliament of Georgia shall elect a new member of the Board of the Agency before powers of a current member of the Board expire. The powers of the new member of the Board of the Agency shall commence upon expiration of powers of the current member of the Board. If powers of a member of the Board of the Agency are prematurely terminated, a vacancy within the Board of the Agency shall be filled within three months from its creation. The Government of Georgia shall propose a candidate for membership of the Board of the Agency to the Parliament of Georgia to fill the vacancy within the Board of the Agency not later than one month from creation of the vacancy. The Parliament of Georgia shall elect the member of the Board of the Agency within two months after the Government of Georgia proposes the candidate for membership of the Board of the Agency.

3. The same candidate may be nominated for election as a member of the Board of the Agency only twice.

4. Five members of the Board of the Agency shall be elected by the Parliament of Georgia by majority of its members on the current nominal list upon recommendation of the Government of Georgia for the term of seven years. The same person may be elected as a member of the Board of the Agency only for two consecutive terms. If powers of a member of the Board of the Agency (except for the President of the National Bank and a member of the Board of the National Bank) are prematurely terminated, a new member to replace him/her shall be elected for the full term of powers of a member of the Board of the Agency.

5. A member of the Board of the Agency shall comply with the following requirements:

a) have a higher education in economics, finance, or banking;

b) have at least seven years' experience of working in the field of banking or finance, including three years' experience of working in a managerial position (a head or a deputy head of a structural unit).

6. A person may not be elected as a member of the Board of the Agency if he/she:

a) was involved in a transaction that caused a significant loss to a commercial bank or a non-bank depository institution – the credit union, and encroached on the rights of the depositors or other creditors of the commercial bank or the non-bank depository institution – the credit union; and/or led to the insolvency or bankruptcy of the commercial bank or the non-bank depository institution – the credit union;

b) was an administrator of a commercial bank or a non-bank depository institution – the credit union, and the commercial bank or the non-bank depository institution – the credit union became insolvent;

c) has been declared bankrupt, has a previous conviction for a grievous or extremely grievous crime, for terrorist financing and/or legalisation of illicit income or other economic crime.

7. The fact specified in paragraph 6(a) of this article must be confirmed by a court decision.

8. A candidate for membership of the Board of the Agency shall submit to the Parliament of Georgia the information on financial liabilities and legal and business relations in the financial sector.

9. The Board of the Agency shall, by majority of its full membership, elect the Chairperson of the Board from among its members for its own term of powers.

10. The President of the National Bank and a member of the Board of the National Bank may not at the same time be the Chairperson of the Board of the Agency or Head of the Agency. The activity of the President of the National Bank and of a member of the Board of the National Bank as a member of the Board of the Agency shall not be remunerated.

11. A member of the Board of the Agency may request information on the activities of the Agency.

12. Powers of a member of the Board of the Agency (except for the President of the National Bank and a member of the Board of the National Bank) shall be prematurely terminated if:

a) a judgement of conviction enters into legal force against him/her, which carries a punishment by restriction of liberty or deprivation of liberty for determinate or indeterminate term, or if a court declares him/her missing or dead, or recognises him/her as a beneficiary of support, unless otherwise determined under court decision – as of the day when the court decision enters into legal force;

b) he/she fails to perform his/her obligations for four consecutive months, or occupies a position under the legislation of Georgia, which is incompatible with the status of a member of the Board of the Agency;

c) he/she resigns from position by submitting a written application to the Chairperson of the Parliament of Georgia not later than two months before resignation. The member of the Board of the Agency shall be considered resigned as of the date specified in his/her application;

d) he/she dies – as of the date of death.

13. In the cases under paragraph 12(a,c,d) of this article, information on early termination of powers of a member of the Board of the Agency shall be accepted by the Parliament of Georgia as reference.

14. In the cases under paragraph 12(b) of this article, powers of a member of the Board of the Agency shall be prematurely terminated by decision of the Parliament of Georgia adopted by majority of its members on the current nominal list.

15. In the cases under paragraph 12(b) of this article, the question of early termination of powers of a member of the Board of the Agency may be raised by at least one fifth of the members on the current nominal list of the Parliament of Georgia.

16. The decision on termination of powers of a member of the Board of the Agency and the grounds for termination shall be public.

17. The Parliament of Georgia shall discuss the issue of early termination of powers of a member of the Board of the Agency and put it to vote on a plenary session – within 30 calendar days after a request for early termination of powers of a member of the Board of the Agency is submitted; and if this time limit coincides with the inter-sessional period – within 10 calendar days after the next session starts.

18. The issue of early termination of powers of a member of the Board of the Agency may not be raised again on the same grounds.

19. After powers of the Chairperson of the Board of the Agency expire or his/her powers of a member of the Board of the Agency are terminated, the current official salary shall be retained to the Chairperson of the Board for one year and during this period he/she may not work in the financial sector. The official salary under this paragraph shall not be paid to the Chairperson of the Board of the Agency and he/she shall not work in Georgian financial sector for one year after termination of his/her powers if a judgement of conviction enters into legal force against him/her, which carries a punishment by restriction of liberty or deprivation of liberty for determinate or indeterminate term, or if he/she occupies a position under the legislation of Georgia, which is incompatible with the status of a member of the Board of the Agency, or resigns from position when three years have not passed after his/her election.

20. A member of the Board of the Agency (except for the President of the National Bank and a member of the Board of the National Bank) may not work in Georgian financial sector for one year after his/her powers expire or if his/her powers of a member of the Board of the Agency are terminated.

21. Main powers and authority of the Board of the Agency shall be to:

a) prepare a policy for supervision and regulation of activities of the financial sector;

b) determine basic areas of the Agency activities;

c) approve the budget of the Agency and submit it to the Board of the National Bank;

d) control the Agency activities;

e) review legal acts related to the regulation of financial supervision;

f) discuss comments of the representatives of the financial sector regarding the actions performed by appropriate structural units of the Agency;

g) exercise other functions and powers provided for under this Law. (The effect of paragraph g) shall be suspended until the Constitutional Court adopts a final judgement on the case) – record of session No 3/6/668 of the Preliminary Session of the Plenum of the Constitutional Court of Georgia of 12 October 2015 – website, 23.10.2015

22. Functions of the Agency and issues related to management, structure and accountability of the Agency shall be regulated by this Law, other legislative acts and the Statute of the Agency approved by ordinance of the Board of the Agency upon recommendation of the Head of the Agency. (The effect of Article 22 shall be suspended until the Constitutional Court adopts a final judgement on the case) – record of session No 3/6/668 of the Preliminary Session of the Plenum of the Constitutional Court of Georgia of 12 October 2015 – website, 23.10.2015

23. A member of the Board of the Agency (except for the Chairperson of the Agency) is not a public servant.

Article 47⁴ – Head of the Agency

1. The Head of the Agency shall administer the Agency. The Head of the Agency shall be approved by the Parliament of Georgia for the term of seven years. A candidate for the Head of the Agency shall be proposed to the Parliament by the Chairperson of the Board of the Agency in agreement with the Board. The candidate for the Head of the Agency shall be considered agreed with the Board of the Agency if a majority of full membership of the Board gives its consent to it.
2. The Parliament of Georgia shall adopt a decision on approval of the Head of the Agency by majority of votes of the attending members of a plenary session but by not less than one third of full membership of the Parliament.
3. The Head of the Agency is a public servant.
4. The Head of the Agency must be honest, qualified, professional, experienced and competent, and must have higher education in one of the following specialties: economy, finance, banking, or audit.
5. Requirements under paragraph 5 (except for sub-paragraph (a)) and paragraphs 6–8 of Article 47³ of this Law shall apply to the Head of the Agency.
6. A person may not be appointed as Head of the Agency twice in a row. A person who was appointed as Head of the Agency may not be reappointed as Head of the Agency within seven years from the expiration or early termination of his/her powers.
7. Powers of the Head of the Agency shall be prematurely terminated:
 - a) based on a personal application if submitted in writing to the Chairperson of the Board of the Agency and the Chairperson of the Parliament of Georgia not later than two months before resignation from position. The Head of the Agency shall be considered resigned from position as of the date specified in the application;
 - b) if he/she occupies a position under the legislation of Georgia, which is incompatible with the status of the Head of the Agency, or performs activities incompatible with the status of the Head of the Agency;
 - c) if his/her citizenship of Georgia is terminated;
 - d) if a judgement of conviction enters into legal force against him/her, which carries a punishment by restriction of liberty or deprivation of liberty for determinate or indeterminate term, or if a court declares him/her missing or dead, or recognises him/her as a beneficiary of support, unless otherwise determined under court decision – as of the day when the court decision enters into legal force;
 - e) if he/she dies;
 - f) if he/she unduly performs the imposed duties.
8. In cases under paragraph 7(b,c) of this article, powers of the Head of the Agency shall be prematurely terminated upon recommendation of the Chairperson of the Board of the Agency by decision of the Parliament of Georgia adopted by majority of its members on the current nominal list. In cases under paragraph 7(a,d,e) of this article, information on early termination of powers of the Head of the Agency shall be accepted by the Parliament as reference.
9. In the case under paragraph 7(f) of this article, powers of the Head of the Agency shall be prematurely terminated upon recommendation of at least four members of the Board of the Agency, by an ordinance of the Parliament of Georgia adopted by majority of votes of the attending members of a plenary session but not less than one third of full membership of the Parliament. The recommendation of the Board members shall be substantiated.
10. The decision on early termination of powers of the Head the Agency and the grounds for termination shall be public.
11. The Head of the Agency shall have a deputy (deputies) who is (are) appointed to and dismissed from the position by the Head of the Agency in agreement with the Board of the Agency. A candidate for the Deputy Head of the Agency shall be considered agreed with the Board of the Agency if a majority of full membership of the Board gives consent to it.
12. Main powers and authority of the Head of the Agency shall be to:
 - a) issue a normative act – an order, and an individual legal act – an ordinance, on the basis of law and for its observance;
 - b) submit the budget of the Agency to the Board of the Agency for approval;
 - c) submit to the Board of the Agency periodic (every six months) reports on the activities carried out by the Agency;
 - d) submit a staff list and amounts of official salaries of the Agency employees to the Board of the Agency for approval;

 - f) determine functions of the Deputy (Deputies) Head of the Agency and the Agency employees;
 - g) establish advisory and consultative bodies (a committee, a commission) if necessary;

h) exercise other functions and powers provided for under this Law. (The effect of Article 12(a,d,e,f,g,h) shall be suspended until the Constitutional Court adopts a final judgement on the case) – record of session No 3/6/668 of the Preliminary Session of the Plenum of the Constitutional Court of Georgia of 12 October 2015 – website, 23.10.2015

13. The Board of the Agency shall, upon recommendation of the Head of the Agency, approve the budget of the Agency and submit it to the Board of the National Bank to include it in the budget of the National Bank. The Board of the National Bank shall automatically reflect the budget of the Agency submitted by the Board of the Agency in the budget of the National Bank, except for the case under paragraph 14 of this article.

14. If the amount of the budget submitted by the Board of the Agency exceeds the amount of the budget of the Agency for the previous year, the Board of the National Bank may require that the Board of the Agency justify this change. If the appropriate justification cannot be obtained, the National Bank may reflect the budget of the Agency in its own budget within the amount of the Agency budget for the previous year. If the increase in the budget of the Agency is partially accepted, the National Bank shall reflect the budget of the Agency in its own budget within the accepted amount.

15. After official powers of the Head of the Agency expire or he/she is prematurely dismissed from the position, the current official salary shall be retained to the Head of the Agency for one year and during this period he/she may not work in the financial sector. The official salary under this paragraph shall not be paid to the Head of the Agency and he/she shall not work in Georgian financial sector for one year after termination of his/her powers if a judgement of conviction enters into legal force against him/her, which carries a punishment by restriction of liberty or deprivation of liberty for determinate or indeterminate term, or if he/she occupies a position under the legislation of Georgia, which is incompatible with the status of the Head of the Agency, or resigns from position when three years have not passed after his/her approval, or if his/her powers are prematurely terminated for undue performance of the imposed duties.

16. A Deputy Head of the Agency may not work in Georgian financial sector for one year after his/her official powers expire or if he/she is prematurely dismissed from the position.

Article 48 – Authority of the Agency in terms of supervision of the financial sector

1. The Agency has been granted full authority to supervise the activities of commercial banks, non-bank depository institutions, micro-finance organisations, independent securities registrars, brokerage companies (except for insurance brokerage companies), stock exchange, central depository, specialised depository, asset management companies, publicly accountable enterprises, payment system operators and payment service providers on the basis of this Law and other normative acts of Georgia.

2. To facilitate prevention of illicit income legalisation and for the purposes of preventing counterfeit money circulation, the Agency shall be authorised to perform regulation of money transfer providers and foreign currency exchange offices by way of registering, and auditing them and establishing minimum requirements for them.

3. To perform supervisory duties, the Agency shall be authorised to issue appropriate decrees and orders, to implement relevant measures and impose relevant sanctions.

4. Except for the grounds provided in the legislation of Georgia, the Agency shall also be authorised to refuse a person registration as/granting a licence of a subject under paragraph 1 of this article, or acquisition of a significant share of a subject under the same article in the case provided for by the legislation of Georgia, if:

a) the registration of a person as a subject/granting a licence to a person or the acquisition of a significant share of a subject by a person may pose a threat to the stability of the Georgian financial sector;

b) the registration of a person as a subject/licensing of a person or the acquisition of a significant share of a subject by a person may cause the violation and/or non-fulfilment of the requirements provided under the compulsory decisions and/or recommendations of international organisations;

c) the registration of a person as a subject/licensing of a person or the acquisition of a significant share of a subject by a person may cause the breach of an agreement signed between Georgia and a foreign country;

d) an interested person failed upon request of the Agency to submit to the National Bank full information on the origin of funds necessary to comply with minimum capital requirements set under the legislation of Georgia for commencing a subject's activity, or to acquire a significant share in the cases provided in the legislation of Georgia.

5. To perform supervisory functions, the Agency shall be authorised to request and receive, within its authority, any information (including confidential information) from persons defined in the first paragraph of this article and from a qualified credit institution provided in Article 48¹ of this Law.

6. To facilitate prevention of illicit income legalisation, the Agency shall be authorised to cooperate with local supervisory and law enforcement bodies.

7. Correspondence between the subject of supervision and the Agency can be conducted in a material or electronic form. They shall have equal legal force.

8. The Agency shall be authorised to receive, from the subject of supervision, a document sent according to the procedures established by the Agency and/or an electronic document with an electronic signature. The issue of use of an electronic signature shall be regulated under an agreement signed between the Agency and the subject of supervision.

9. If a material and/or an electronic document cannot be delivered to the subject of supervision, the Head of the Agency or his/her Deputy may decide to publicly disseminate an official document. The official document shall be publicly disseminated by publishing it on the official website of the Agency or through another means of information dissemination. A public notice shall be deemed delivered on the 15th day after it has been publicly disseminated.
