Article 8 - Forces and means for performing counter-terrorist operations

1. When performing counter-terrorist operations, the emergency operations centre may use the necessary forces and means of executive and local self-government authorities in order to suppress terrorist acts. Executive authorities shall, in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia, allocate weapons, special equipment, means of transport, means of communication and other material resources necessary for counter-terrorist operations.
2. The intensity of using weapons and special equipment and of physical coercion shall be determined by taking into account specific situations, and the character of the crime of a terrorist nature and the personal characteristics of the terrorist.

Article 9 - Managing counter-terrorist operations

1. After the commencement of a counter-terrorist operation, each participant of the counter-terrorist operation shall be subordinate to the head of the emergency operations centre.
2. A deputy head of the emergency operations centre, in his/her capacity of manager of an anti-terrorist operation, shall define the boundaries of the counter-terrorist operation zone and shall make decisions regarding the use of forces and means used for performing the operation.
3. Interference of any other person in the activity of the management of a counter-terrorist operation shall be inadmissible.

Article 10 - Legal regime in a counter-terrorist operation zone

1. During the implementation of counter-terrorist measures two zones with a special legal regime shall be established: a safety zone and a counter-terrorist operation zone.
2. A decision regarding creation of the zones shall be made by the Minister of Internal Affairs of Georgia - head of the emergency operations centre. The decision shall be immediately reported to the Government of Georgia, the Parliament of Georgia and local self-government bodies, and published in the mass media.
3. A safety zone means the territory where, in accordance with procedures established by the legislation of Georgia, agencies combating terrorism are temporarily authorised:
 - a) establish posts in order to inspect motor vehicles;
 - b) carry out patrols and check ID documents of citizens.
4. A counter-terrorist zone means the territory in which counter-terrorist operations are performed.
5. In the case of urgent necessity, persons performing counter-terrorist operations in counter-terrorist zones may, in accordance with procedures established by the legislation of Georgia:
 - a) implement measures for temporarily restricting or prohibiting movement of pedestrians and vehicles in streets and on roads;

b) examine ID documents of citizens in order to establish their identity;

c) in suppressing terrorist acts or in pursuing a person accused of the commission of a terrorist act, when delay may endanger human life and health: freely enter (penetrate) dwellings of citizens, and other premises and parcels of land owned by citizens, and the territories of organisations and institutions (irrespective of their types of ownership), as well as vehicles; use communication means, including special means, owned by citizens and organisations; examine personal property of citizens, vehicles and cargo, including by the use of technical means upon their entering and leaving the counter-terrorist operation zones;

d) for the purpose of preventing terrorist acts, use vehicles owned by citizens, enterprises, institutions, organisations and public associations, except for vehicles owned by consular offices of foreign countries, by diplomatic and international organisations, or by other organisations which are under international protection, in order to pursue and detain a person who committed a terrorist act, or to take persons to medical facilities for providing emergency medical care, or to arrive at the site of an accident.

6. In safety and counter-terrorist operation zones, agencies combating terrorism, within the scope of their powers, shall exercise other powers granted to them by the legislation of Georgia.

Law of Georgia No 3619 of 24 September 2010 - LGH I, No 51, 29.9.2010, Art. 332

Law of Georgia No 1266 of 20 September 2013 - website, 8.10.2013

Article 11 - Right to use special means and/or physical coercion

In accordance with procedures established by the legislation of Georgia, persons participating in counter-terrorist operations may use special means and/or physical coercion in order to ensure personal and citizens' safety, and to suppress crimes and detain criminals provided that the persons participating in counter-terrorist operations cannot perform their obligations assigned by law without the use of special means and/or physical coercion.

Article 12 - Holding negotiations with terrorists

1. In accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia, holding negotiations with terrorists shall be permitted in order to protect human life and health and preserve material assets during counter-terrorist operations, or to suppress terrorist acts without using coercive methods.

2. Only designated persons shall be permitted by the head of a counter-terrorist operation to participate in negotiations with terrorists.

Article 13 - Informing the public about terrorist acts

1. When performing a counter-terrorist operation, information about an anti-terrorist act shall be provided to the public via mass media or by other means accessible for the public. The extent of information shall be defined by the head of the counter-terrorist operation in accordance with the Law of Georgia on State Secrets. Disclosure of information considered to be a state secret shall entail liability in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia.

2. In counter-terrorist operation zones, the presence of reporters from televisions, broadcast mobile stations and/or mass media shall be restricted by decision of the emergency operations centre.

Article 14 - Completion of a counter-terrorist operation

1. A counter-terrorist operation shall be considered to be completed when a terrorist act is finally suppressed and a danger threatening human life and health is eliminated.

2. A decision to declare a counter-terrorist act as completed shall be made by the head of the counter-terrorist operation, and the public shall be informed about the decision immediately via mass media or other means accessible to the public.

Chapter IV - Compensation of Damage Resulted from Terrorist Acts and Social Rehabilitation of Affected Persons

Article 15 - Compensation of damage caused to natural and legal persons as a result of a terrorist act or as a result of its suppression

1. The damage inflicted to natural persons as a result of a terrorist act or its suppression shall be compensated from the State Budget of Georgia in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia.

2. The damage inflicted to legal persons as a result of a terrorist act or its suppression shall be compensated in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia.
