

LAW OF GEORGIA

ON THE LEGAL STATUS OF ALIENS AND STATELESS PERSONS

Section I

General Provisions

Chapter I – General Provisions

Article 1 – Aims, objectives, and scope of the Law

1. Under the rights and freedoms guaranteed by the Constitution of Georgia, as well as universally recognised principles and norms of international law, this Law is intended to:

- a) establish legal guarantees for aliens and stateless persons in Georgia according to universally recognised human rights and freedoms, and in line with state interests;
- b) protect universally recognised rights of aliens and stateless persons irrespective of race, colour, language, gender, religion, political, and other views, nationality, ethnic and social belonging, origin, property status and rank;
- c) promote the development of relations between Georgia and foreign states in economy, culture, education, and science;
- d) strengthen the rights of free movement and free choice of residence, as well as the free choice of activity and profession as guaranteed by the Constitution of Georgia;
- e) strengthen the conformity of Georgian legislation governing the legal status of aliens and of persons having the status of stateless person in Georgia, with universally recognised standards of international law and international agreements of Georgia;
- f) support international cooperation in preventing illegal migration; avoid spontaneous and unorganised migration; ensure the implementation of a targeted migration policy.

2. This Law regulates the legal basis and mechanisms for entry, stay, transit, and departure of aliens into/in/through/from Georgia; defines the rights and obligations of aliens and stateless persons, the types and procedures for removal of aliens staying in Georgia, and the scope of competence and responsibility of state institutions involved in the process of removal.

3. Article 5(c), Article 10(4), Chapter VI and Article 47 of this Law applies to persons seeking asylum and persons with international protection, except when the Law of Georgia on International Protection and the 1951 United Nations Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees offer such persons a better legal position.

Law of Georgia No 46 of 1 December 2016 – website, 15.12.2016

Article 2 – Definition of terms

The terms used in this Law shall have the following meanings:

- a) alien – a person who is not a citizen of Georgia, as well as a person having a status of stateless person in Georgia;
- b) stateless person – a person who is not considered a citizen by any state under its legislation;

c) visa – an established conditional permit granted by placing a visa form into a travel document or electronically (electronic visa), and which, provided there is no ground to deny entry to Georgia, or no fact of termination of the period of stay, confirms the right of an alien to enter and/or stay in Georgia or transit the territory of Georgia;

d) visa validity – the period during which an alien is entitled to enter and/or stay in Georgia;

e) invitation – an official document containing the written request of a citizen of Georgia, a person holding a Georgian residence permit, a legal person registered in Georgia, or of a Ministry of Georgia, the Office of the State Minister of Georgia, a diplomatic mission accredited in Georgia, a consular office, or an international organisation to confirm the purpose of arrival of an alien to Georgia;

f) travel document – a passport or other travel document serving as a passport substitute, as well as an ID recognised by the legislation or international agreements of Georgia that is valid for travelling;

g) inspection at a border checkpoint – border migration control at the time of entry and departure of an alien into/from Georgia;

h) family member – a spouse, child, parent of an alien or of a person having a status of stateless person in Georgia, as well as a person under guardianship or custody of an alien or of a person having a status of stateless person in Georgia, and/or a fully dependent minor, and a beneficiary of support or a disabled person;

i) relative – a spouse, child, parent, sister, brother, grandfather, grandmother, grandchild of an alien or of a person having a status of stateless person in Georgia;

j) border checkpoint – a highway or section of a road, part of railway station, port, harbour, airport (airfield) reserved for cross-border movement, where border and other types of control under the legislation of Georgia in terms of border crossing is carried out;

k) border zone – maximum 5-km-wide terrestrial line within the territory of Georgia from the state borderline or coastal line, as well as the part of the territory of an international airport (airfield), railway station and sea port where the crossing of the state border of Georgia is controlled;

l) freelancer – a person of a certain profession who carries out his/her professional duties independently, at his/her responsibility, in favour of other persons or the public interest;

m) labour activity – any activity for which a person receives labour remuneration;

n) transit – crossing of the territory of Georgia with the aim to enter a third state;

o) carrier company – a legal person operating in the field of transport and engaged in bringing passengers to Georgia and taking them out of Georgia;

p) period of stay in Georgia – the period indicated in a Georgian visa or a Georgian residence permit, as well as the period provided for by the legislation of Georgia during which an alien is authorised to stay in the territory of Georgia. The period of stay shall be calculated from the date an alien crosses the state border for the first time;

q) an asylum seeker, a person with international protection – persons defined by the Law of Georgia on International Protection;

r) temporary identity card – an identity document issued to asylum seekers and persons seeking a status of stateless person in Georgia, and persons under Article 60 of this Law. In the cases defined by an order of the Minister of Justice of Georgia and under established procedures, a temporary identity card may also be issued to persons to whom other identification documents may not be issued under the legislation of Georgia;

s) removal – an action by an authorised government body, when there are grounds under this Law, to remove an alien or a person having a status of stateless person in Georgia against his/her will.

t) commercial agent – a legal person entrusted with the performance of certain activities necessary to issue a Georgian visa abroad.

Section II

Entry, Stay, Transit, and Departure of Aliens into/in/through/from Georgia

Chapter II – General Principles of Entry, Stay, Transit, and Departure of Aliens into/in/through/from Georgia

Article 3 – General principles

The entry, stay, transit, and departure of aliens into/in/through/from Georgia shall be regulated based on the following principles:

- a) reciprocity;
- b) family unity;
- c) non-discrimination;
- d) non-removal;
- e) the best interests of children;
- f) crossing the state border of Georgia by an alien shall be regulated by the legislation of Georgia;
- g) government bodies, as provided for by the legislation of Georgia, may apply relevant laws and rules to an alien crossing the state border of Georgia, taking into account the reason and purpose for crossing the border;
- h) only the restrictions under the legislation of Georgia may be applied against an alien crossing the state border of Georgia;
- i) an alien who has been refused a visa or permission to cross the state border of Georgia may appeal such a decision, as provided for by the legislation of Georgia;
- j) an alien may enter Georgia under the legislation of Georgia, in observance of universally recognised principles of international law and international agreements of Georgia;
- k) an alien against whom criminal proceedings are pending for international crimes of terrorism, drug trafficking, or human trafficking may be denied entry into Georgia;
- l) an alien staying in Georgia shall be free to leave Georgia. This right may be restricted only according to law to ensure state and/or public safety necessary to maintain a democratic society to provide healthcare, to prevent crime, or to administer justice;
- m) an alien may be removed from Georgia only under the legislation of Georgia, in accordance with universally recognised principles of international law;
- n) stateless persons permanently residing in a foreign state are subject to the same legal regime as established for citizens of that foreign state;

Article 4 – Entry into Georgia

1. Unless otherwise provided for by the legislation of Georgia, aliens shall enter and depart from Georgia during the hours established for cross-border movement via border checkpoints if they hold a valid travel document and will obtain a permit to stay in Georgia.

2. If representatives of the armed forces of NATO and representatives of the countries participating in the Partnership for Peace Program enter, depart from, or transit through Georgia on official business in the manner provided for by paragraphs 5 and 6 of this article without a valid travel document, they shall have only the following travel documents:

- a) an identification certificate issued by the dispatching country specifying their first name, surname, date of birth, position, number (if any), branch of the armed forces and a photo;
- b) an individual or collective movement order.

3. Foreign employees of diplomatic missions accredited in Georgia, consular offices, representation offices of international organisations, and other equivalent representations, including citizens of the countries that do not need a visa to enter Georgia, need a visa for the first entry into Georgia to work, unless otherwise provided for by an international agreement of Georgia. During accreditation, they shall stay in Georgia and shall cross the state border on the basis of an accreditation card issued according to procedures defined by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFA) of Georgia.

4. A different regime for entry and stay in Georgia may be provided by the legislation of Georgia.

5. Representatives of the armed forces of NATO and representatives of countries participating in the Partnership for Peace Program do not need a visa for the entry into, departure from, and transit through Georgia when performing official duties related to training and operations associated with NATO and the Partnership for Peace Program.

6. When performing official duties that are not related to training and operations under NATO and the Partnership for Peace Program, in case of entry into, departure from, and transit through Georgia of representatives of the armed forces of NATO and representatives of countries participating in the Partnership for Peace Program, they will enjoy visa-free movement under prior written consent by the Ministry of Defence and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia.

7. When performing official duties, representatives of the armed forces of NATO and representatives of countries participating in the Partnership for Peace Program may also enjoy the benefits defined in Article 12(3) and Article 20(3) of this Law.

8. An authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs (MIA) of Georgia may, in special cases defined by the Ministry of Internal Affairs, permit an alien to cross the state border of Georgia without a travel document and stay in Georgia for up to three months.

Article 5 – Grounds for entry and stay in Georgia

The following shall be the grounds for entry into and stay in Georgia:

- a) a Georgian visa;
- b) a Georgian residence permit;
- c) a temporary residence card of a person with international protection in Georgia;
- d) a temporary identity card;
- e) other cases as provided by the legislation of Georgia.

Law of Georgia No 46 of 1 December 2016 – website, 15.12.2016

Chapter III – Georgian Visa

Article 6 – General conditions for granting a Georgian visa

1. A Georgian visa shall be granted by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia, and diplomatic missions and consular offices of <http://www.matsne.gov.ge>

Georgia abroad. In exceptional cases defined by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia, a visa may be issued at the Georgian state border.

1¹. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia shall issue a Georgian immigration visa to an alien who is lawfully staying in Georgia according to the procedure specified in Article 8 of this Law. For this purpose, an alien shall apply to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia with an appropriate application not later than 45 days before his/her lawful stay in Georgia expires.

1². The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia shall issue an electronic visa to an alien staying abroad if an appropriate visa application has been submitted through e-VISA PORTAL – a special webpage of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia.

2. An alien, in whose country of citizenship Georgia does not have a diplomatic mission or a consular office, may apply for a visa to a nearby diplomatic mission or consular office of Georgia.

2¹. The issuance of a Georgian visa, or the performance of certain activities necessary to issue a Georgian visa to an alien in whose country of citizenship Georgia has no diplomatic mission or consular office may be entrusted to a third country. Conditions for the issuance of a Georgian visa or the performance of certain activities necessary to issue a Georgian visa shall be determined under an appropriate treaty or agreement.

3. An alien who is in a third country may apply for a Georgian visa to the diplomatic mission or the consular office of Georgia in the host country provided he/she has a valid multiple entry and exit visa or a valid residence permit of the host country. If a Georgian visa is granted to an alien of this category, the validity period of the above visa or residence permit of the host country must be three months longer than the validity period of the Georgian visa.

3¹. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia has the power to entrust the performance of certain activities necessary to issue a Georgian visa to a commercial agent. Conditions for the commercial agent to perform certain activities necessary to issue a Georgian visa shall be determined under the agreement concluded between the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia and the commercial agent.

4. In exceptional cases, a visa may be issued on the basis of international legal or humanitarian grounds or the state interests of Georgia, in the cases where an alien does not meet the requirements and conditions established for obtaining a visa. In that case a single entry visa with 30-calendar-days validity period shall be issued to the alien, and a temporary residence permit shall be issued after the entry of the alien into Georgia.

5. A single or multiple entry Georgian visa may be issued to an alien, provided he/she meets the requirements and conditions established for receiving a Georgian visa.

6. A single entry short-term visa may be issued in accordance with the number of days indicated in a visa application submitted by an alien, but for not more than 30 days.

7. A multiple entry short-term visa may be issued for a maximum of a five-year validity period. At the same time, the overall duration of an alien's entry and stay in Georgia shall not exceed 90 calendar days in any 180-day period. A multiple entry short-term visa shall be issued to an alien who, under the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia, stayed in Georgia at least once during the previous year and there are grounds for him/her to request a multiple entry short-term visa.

8. A long-term visa shall be issued with the right of multiple entries and with 90 calendar days or one year validity period and duration of stay in Georgia. A long-term visa with one year validity period shall be issued only when a D5 immigration visa is granted. A long-term visa shall be a precondition for obtaining diplomatic accreditation or a Georgian residence permit, unless otherwise provided for by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia.

9. The Government of Georgia shall establish the procedure for issuance, extension, and termination of a Georgian visa. The Government of Georgia has the power to establish the terms and the procedure, different from those provided for under the General Administrative Code of Georgia, for filing and reviewing an administrative complaint regarding the issuance, extension, and termination of the Georgian visa.

Article 8 – Procedures for obtaining a Georgian visa

1. To obtain a Georgian visa, an alien shall fill out a visa application the form of which is established by a normative act of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia. For the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia to issue an electronic visa, except when a D immigration electronic visa is granted to an alien staying in Georgia on legitimate grounds, an alien fills out a visa application on a special webpage of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia – e-VISA PORTAL.

1¹. The decision to issue a Georgian immigration visa to an alien staying in Georgia on legitimate grounds is made by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia. The reception of the documentation necessary to issue an immigration visa to an alien staying in Georgia on legitimate grounds, and the placement of a visa in a travel document, or the electronic issuance of a Georgian visa shall be ensured by the Legal Entities under Public Law (LEPL) within the Ministry of Justice of Georgia – LEPL Public Service Hall (the ‘Public Service Hall’) and LEPL Public Service Development Agency (the ‘Agency’), or by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia. The power of the Agency under this paragraph maybe delegated to a municipality under a delegation agreement.

1². In the case provided for in paragraph 1¹ of this article and Article 9(4¹) of this Law, the appropriate state monitoring of exercising the delegated power shall be performed by the Ministry of Justice of Georgia under the procedure established by the Organic law of Georgia Local Self-Government Code.

1³. To define the powers of the authorities under paragraph 1¹ of this article, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia and the Ministry of Justice of Georgia shall issue a joint order.

2. The circumstances that must be confirmed in order to obtain a Georgian visa, and/or the documents to be attached to a visa application shall be determined by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia.

3. If required, a visa issuing authority may invite a Georgian visa applicant and/or his/her representative for an interview.

4. In the cases provided for by the legislation of Georgia, an alien shall be required to present an invitation.

5. (deleted – No 3602, 8.5.2015).

6. (deleted – No 3602, 8.5.2015).

7. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia, diplomatic missions and consular offices of Georgia abroad shall make the decision regarding the issuance of a short-term Georgian visa within 10 calendar days after an appropriate visa application is submitted. A short-term Georgian electronic visa shall be issued no later than 5 working days after a visa application is submitted through a special webpage of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia – e-VISA PORTAL. The period for making the decision to issue a short-term Georgian visa, except when a short-term Georgian electronic visa is issued on the basis of a visa application submitted through a special webpage of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia – e-VISA PORTAL, may be extended by 30 calendar days, if further examination of an application is required. The period for making the decision to issue a short-term Georgian visa, except when a short-term Georgian electronic visa is issued on the basis of a visa application submitted through a special webpage of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia – e-VISA PORTAL, in cases defined by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia, may be shortened to 5 working days or shorter period. The period for issuing a short-term electronic visa on the basis of a visa application submitted through a special webpage of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia – e-VISA PORTAL may be shortened to less than 5 days in urgent cases defined also by an ordinance of the Government.

8. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia, diplomatic missions and consular offices of Georgia abroad shall make the decision to issue a D category (except for D5) long-term Georgian immigration visa within 30 calendar days after an appropriate visa application is submitted. The decision to issue a D5 immigration visa shall be made within 10 calendar days after an appropriate visa application is submitted.

Article 9 – Extending a Georgian visa

1. An alien staying in Georgia is entitled to request an extension of short-term Georgian diplomatic and special visas, and D3 and D5 immigration visas if he/she meets conditions for a respective visa issuance. When extending a D5 immigration visa, an alien shall be exempt from the obligation to submit a reassessment of the market value of the real property.

2. Individuals arriving in Georgia to conduct research at an authorised educational institution in Georgia, and individuals arriving in Georgia to study within international programmes shall be entitled to an extension of a D3 immigration visa if the grounds for the visa extension do not allow for the possibility that these individuals stay in Georgia for more than 3 months.

3. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia shall make the decision to extend Georgian diplomatic and special visas, and D3 and D5 immigration visas.

4. The reception of the documentation necessary to extend Georgian diplomatic and special visas shall be ensured by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia.

4¹. The reception of the documentation necessary to extend D3 and D5 immigration visas shall be ensured by the Public Service Hall and the Agency. The power of the Agency under this paragraph maybe delegated to a municipality under a delegation agreement.

4². For an alien, who has submitted a visa application to extend a Georgian visa under paragraph 2 of this article, the period of his/her stay in Georgia during the appropriate administrative procedure shall be deemed excusable, and he/she shall be exempt from the obligation to pay a fine as determined under the legislation of Georgia. The alien may not be removed from Georgia until the final decision on the extension of the Georgian visa is made.

5. Provisions of Chapters II and III of this Law shall be applicable when reviewing the issue of extending a Georgian visa validity period.

Law of Georgia No 3602 of 8 May 2015 – website, 15.5.2015

Article 10 – Exemption from Georgian visa obligations

1. An alien may be exempted from Georgian visa obligations under the legislation of Georgia.
2. An alien who does not need a short-term visa for entry into Georgia shall enter and stay in Georgia for a maximum of 90 calendar days in any 180-day period.
3. The list of countries citizens of which can enter Georgia without a visa, and stay in Georgia for the period different from that provided for in paragraph 2 of this article, namely, for one full year, shall be determined by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia.
- 3¹. An alien holding a country visa and/or residence permit as determined by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia can enter Georgia without a visa for the period and with the conditions provided for by the same ordinance.
4. Aliens holding a Georgian residence permit or a temporary residence permit of a person with international protection shall enter Georgia without a visa for the entire permit validity period.
5. The following individuals do not require a visa for transit movement in Georgia:
 - a) passengers of an aircraft crossing Georgia without interim landing at a Georgian airport; provided a permit for crossing Georgia's air space has been obtained in advance;
 - b) members of a crew of an international airline, railway, or marine transport and stopover passengers, provided the passengers have a document evidencing the right to enter their country of destination and their period of stay in Georgia does not exceed 10 days. At the same time, passengers may not leave a designated transit area at an airport, a railway station or a seaport.

Article 11 – Grounds for refusing a Georgian visa or entry into Georgia

1. An alien may be refused a Georgian visa or entry into Georgia:
 - a) if he/she does not have documents necessary for entering Georgia as provided for by the legislation of Georgia;
 - b) if he/she has been banned from entering Georgia or has not paid a fine imposed for an unlawful stay in Georgia;
 - c) if he/she has submitted incomplete or false data or documents for obtaining a visa or for extending a visa validity period;
 - d) if he/she does not have health and accident insurance or sufficient funds to reside in Georgia and to return to his/her point of origin;
 - e) if his/her stay in Georgia poses a threat to the state security and/or public order of Georgia, or to the protection of the health, rights, and legitimate interests of citizens of Georgia and other persons residing in Georgia;
 - f) if his/her stay in Georgia is unacceptable because of foreign policy considerations;
 - g) if there is a reasonable doubt that he/she will unlawfully stay in Georgia after the visa validity expires;

h) if he/she does not provide, or provides false information about his/her identity and purpose of travel;

i) in other cases provided for by the legislation of Georgia.

2. An alien shall be refused a visa or entry into Georgia under the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia.

2¹. When a Georgian visa or entry into Georgia is refused on the grounds provided for in paragraphs (b), (e) or (f) of this article, there must be a report of an authorised body on the inappropriateness of issuance of the Georgian visa.

3. In the cases provided for in paragraph 1(b), (e), and (f) of this article, the report on the inappropriateness of issuance of the Georgian visa or entry into Georgia shall not be substantiated.

4. An alien who, as a result of inspection at a border checkpoint, has been refused entry into Georgia shall return to his/her point of origin.

5. In the case provided for in the fourth paragraph of this article if an alien cannot leave a border control zone immediately due to legal or factual reasons, he/she shall be placed temporarily at the border control zone, under observation, in a specifically designated place.

Law of Georgia No 3602 of 8 May 2015 – website, 15.5.2015

Article 12 – Inspection at a border checkpoint

1. For entry into Georgia an alien shall undergo inspection at a border checkpoint.

2. An authorised body of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall inspect aliens at border checkpoints in accordance with the legislation of Georgia. As a result of the inspection, the authorised body shall:

a) grant consent to enter Georgia;

b) deny entry into Georgia and return him/her to the point of origin.

3. Representatives of the armed forces of NATO member states and of the states participating in the Partnership for Peace Programme shall be exempt from inspection at border checkpoints at entry into, transit through, and exit from Georgia while performing their official duties, according to the procedures provided for by Article 4 (5) and (6) of this Law.

Article 13 – Obligations of carrier companies

1. A carrier company shall be obliged to:

a) check an alien's documents to ascertain whether he/she has a valid visa and travel documents required for entry into Georgia under this Law;

b) have aliens present for inspection at border checkpoints immediately upon arrival;

c) return aliens who have been denied entry into Georgia to the point of origin.

2. A carrier company shall be obliged to bear the costs of the return transportation of an alien and the expenses of his/her stay incurred before his/her return if an alien has been denied entry into Georgia because the inspection revealed the absence of the grounds and travel documents required by this Law for entering and/or staying in Georgia.

3. If upon inspection at a border checkpoint an alien has been denied entry into Georgia, except for the cases provided for in the second paragraph of this article, the state shall be obliged to bear the expenses of stay incurred before the return of an alien, while the carrier company shall cover the return transportation when the alien returns to the point of origin.

4. A carrier company that covered the expenses of the return transportation of an alien may request the alien to reimburse any expenses the company incurred due the alien's denial of entry into Georgia.

5. If the carrier company fails to fulfil the obligations under this article (except for subparagraph (a) of this article), it shall be held liable under the procedure provided for by the administrative legislation of Georgia.

Chapter IV – Georgian Residence Permits

Article 14 – Body issuing Georgian residence permits and general conditions for issuing a residence permit

1. The Agency shall issue a Georgian residence permit to an alien staying in Georgia on legitimate grounds.
2. An alien staying in Georgia on legitimate grounds, and holding any type of residence permit provided for in Article 15 of this Law may apply to the Agency for another type of residence permit if he/she meets the established requirements for the issuance of a respective residence permit.
3. (deleted – No 3602, 8.5.2015).

Article 16 – A residence permit validity period

1. A temporary residence permit defined by Article 15(a-f) of this Law may be issued to an alien for not more than six years.

2. A residence permit to a stateless person shall be issued for a three-year period. A residence permit with the right of permanent residence shall be granted to a stateless person whose citizenship of Georgia has been terminated by reason of renunciation of the Georgian citizenship, or who has permanently lived in Georgia as of 31 March 1993, has not been considered a citizen of Georgia and has not been removed from permanent registration in Georgia after 31 March 1993.

2¹. An investment residence permit provided for by Article 15(h) of this Law may be issued to an alien for a 5-year term. An alien holding an investment residence permit shall, in the case of making an investment, during the period of his/her holding the investment residence permit, submit to the Agency, annually until the expiry of each year of the investment residence permit validity, information from the Legal Entity under Public Law – the Revenue Service on the annual turnover of the entrepreneurial activities he/she has carried out in Georgia. The validity of an investment residence permit shall be terminated if an alien has no proof of the annual turnover of at least USD 50 000 equivalent in GEL during the first year of the entrepreneurial activities he/she carried out in Georgia; the annual turnover of at least USD 100 000 equivalent in GEL during the second year, and the turnover of at least USD 120 000 equivalent in GEL during the third, fourth and fifth years. A person holding an investment residence permit issued on the basis of having ownership of an immovable thing worth of more than USD 300 000 equivalent in GEL shall be obliged to maintain the property right to the immovable thing on the basis of having ownership of which the investment residence permit was issued, or to the immovable thing that has been used as a replacement under the condition provided for by Article 21(1³) of this Law.

3. A permanent living permit provided for by Article 15(g) of this Law and an unlimited residence permit provided for by Article 15(k) of this Law shall be granted with the right of permanent living.

3¹. A short-term residence permit provided for in Article 15(j) of this Law may be issued to an alien for one year period. The validity of the permit shall be terminated if the alien's right of ownership of the appropriate real property is terminated.

4. The validity of a temporary residence permit and a short-term residence permit shall be extended with the same conditions as those that applied when issuing the permits. Furthermore, if an alien maintains the right of ownership of the real property which was the basis for issuing a short-term residence permit provided for in Article 15(j) of this Law, he/she shall be exempt from the obligation to submit a reassessment of the market value of the real property.

5. To get an unlimited residence permit, an alien to whom an investment residence permit has been issued on the basis of his/her making an investment of USD 300 000 equivalent in GEL and who has been holding an investment residence permit for 5 years, must apply to the Agency before the 5-year validity period of the investment residence permit expires and submit information on the turnover for the fifth year after the investment residence permit was issued to prove that the turnover in the fifth year after his/her carrying out entrepreneurial activities in Georgia amounts to at least USD 120 000 equivalent in GEL; and an alien to whom an investment residence permit has been issued on the basis of his/her having ownership of an immovable thing worth of USD 300 000 equivalent in GEL, shall, before the fifth year of the investment residence permit validity expires, apply to the Agency and submit a certificate from the Legal Entity under Public Law – the National Agency of Public Registry ('the Public Registry') concerning the immovable thing he/she has had ownership of during the 5 years cumulatively, on the basis of having ownership of which the investment residence permit was issued to him/her, or concerning his/her having ownership of an immovable thing that has been used as a replacement under the condition provided for by Article 21(1³) of this Law.

Note: If an alien holding an investment residence permit applies to the Agency for an unlimited residence permit, he/she shall retain the investment residence permit until the Agency makes an appropriate decision.

Article 17 – Considering and making a decision on the matter of granting a Georgian residence permit

1. To obtain a Georgian residence permit, an alien shall apply to the Agency in person or through an authorised representative.

2. To obtain a Georgian residence permit, an application for a minor shall be submitted by his/her legal representative. An application for a beneficiary of support may only be submitted through his/her supporter, unless otherwise determined under court decision; and an application for a person recognised as legally incompetent under the procedure established by the legislation of a respective country shall be submitted his/her legal representative, unless otherwise determined by the legislation of this country.

3. An application and accompanying documents for a Georgia residence permit may be submitted to the Agency electronically, according to the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia.

4. When a special residence permit is issued based on the written initiative of a member of the Government of Georgia, grounds specified in Article 18 of this Law shall not be verified. Additional documents to be submitted by the interested person and the procedure for their submission shall be defined by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia.

5. An alien about who is reasonably assumed to a victim of or affected by the crime of human trafficking shall be granted a special residence permit (or the validity period of his/her permit shall be extended) at the request of an institution providing services to victims of human trafficking or a body handling the proceedings.

6. An application and accompanying documents for obtaining a Georgian residence permit shall be submitted to the Agency in the official language of Georgia. In the cases provided for by the legislation of Georgia, the Agency shall be authorised to accept an application in a language other than the official language as well. An alien's passport may be submitted to the Agency without a Georgian translation, provided it contains the alien's personal data in Latin transliteration.

6¹. The Agency shall issue a temporary residence permit to an alien who is a victim of violence against women and/or domestic violence and shall prolong such permit based on application of an institution providing services to victims of violence against women and domestic violence or the agency responsible for the proceedings.

7. The period for considering an application for obtaining a residence permit and for extending its validity period shall not exceed 30 days from the submission of all the required documents to the Agency.

8. The Agency shall be obliged to notify an alien electronically of the outcome of considering the application, in accordance with the procedure provided for by the legislation of Georgia.

9. A decision on the issuance of a residence permit may be appealed under the procedure provided for by the legislation of Georgia.

10. The issuance of a Georgian residence permit shall be considered and a decision shall be made under the procedure established by the Government of Georgia.

 - a) if they have applied to the Agency for a Georgian residence permit or the citizenship of Georgia;
 - b) if they are sick or pregnant, if according to a doctor's opinion further travel will pose a threat to their health. In that case, their family members and accompanying persons may stay with them;
 - c) if proceedings are pending in Georgia's court of general jurisdiction with their participation and if their stay in Georgia is essential for protecting their interests;
 - d) if they are involuntarily staying in Georgia for more than 10 days during their transit through Georgia; in that case, the following shall be regarded as involuntary stay:
 - d.a) natural phenomenon impeding the movement of trains, vehicles, ships, or airplanes;
 - d.b) necessary repairs of means of transport or a traffic accident;
 - d.c) delays in changing means of transport;
 - d.d) other cases where it is impossible to move from one place to another without impediment;
 - e) on the basis of an application by a competent person of a ministry of Georgia or a state sub-agency.
2. The Agency shall decide to defer an alien's obligation to leave Georgia within three days from the submission of the relevant application.
3. Seven calendar days before the expiry of his/her lawful stay in Georgia, an alien shall be obliged to apply to the Agency for deferring the obligation to leave Georgia on the grounds laid down in paragraph 1(a) of this article.

4. An alien's obligation to leave Georgia may be deferred on the grounds laid down in paragraph 1(a) of this article only once and up to three months.

5. In special circumstances, upon reasonable request, an alien's obligation to leave Georgia may be deferred once, up to three months, for the same purpose for which the permission to stay in Georgia was granted.

6. Application for deferring the obligation to leave Georgia and accompanying documents shall be submitted to the Agency in the same manner as prescribed for the submission of an application for a Georgian residence permit. If a foreign applicant is no longer interested in deferring the obligation to leave Georgia, he/she may, at any stage of administrative proceedings, apply to the Agency for the termination of proceedings. In the process of considering or deciding the issue, communication with the foreign applicant shall be carried out in the same manner as prescribed for communication with an interested party at the time of considering/deciding the issuance of a Georgian residence permit.

Section IV

Transitional and Final Provisions

Chapter XV

Transitional and Final Provisions

Article 71 – Measures related to the enactment of this Law

1. The government of Georgia, within three months of the enactment of this Law, shall ensure:

a) approval of the procedures for issuing a Georgian visa, its extension and termination

- b) approval of the list of the countries whose citizens may enter Georgia without a visa;
 - c) approval of the procedures for considering and deciding on the issuance of residence permit of Georgia;
 - d) approval of the procedures for removing aliens from Georgia;
 - e) approval of the procedures for determining the status of stateless persons in Georgia;
 - f) conformity of appropriate subordinate acts with this Law.
2. The Ministry of Justice of Georgia shall approve the form and issuance procedures of temporary identity card.
 3. The MIA shall approve the procedure for detaining and placing aliens in a temporary accommodation centre.
 4. The relevant government institutions shall ensure the conformity of relevant legal acts with this Law.

Article 72 – Transitional provisions

1. The provisions of Chapter III of this Law shall not apply to aliens who crossed the state border of Georgia before this Law entered into force up to the time when they leave the territory of Georgia, but not later than until 1 July 2015.
2. Persons with the status of stateless person in Georgia who acquired the status before enactment of this Law under the legislation of Georgia on the legal status of aliens without relevant procedure and whose residence cards have expired, shall be obliged to apply to the Agency for new residence cards before 1 September 2015. In case of the failure to fulfil this obligation within the specified time frame the stateless status of these persons shall be terminated.
3. When applying for an appropriate residence permit in Georgia, an alien, who had been issued a Georgian residence permit before the entry into force of this paragraph, or an alien, who entered Georgia after 17 March 2014 and was staying in Georgia at the time of entry into force of this paragraph, shall be exempted, until 1 July 2015, from the requirement of Article 14(2) of this Law and from the obligation to submit a document evidencing his/her lawful stay in Georgia. In that case, an alien shall not be subject to removal from Georgia until the final decision on the issuance of a residence permit has been made.
4. If an alien obtains a Georgian residence permit according to paragraph 3 of this article after his/her lawful stay in Georgia expires, the period of his/her unlawful stay in Georgia shall be deemed valid and he/she shall be exempted from the penalty prescribed by the legislation of Georgia.
5. An alien, who entered Georgia before 17 March 2014 and was staying in Georgia at the time when this paragraph entered into force, may obtain a Georgian immigration visa after his/her lawful stay in Georgia expires, until 1 July 2015, according to Article 6(1¹) of this Law, except when he/she was refused a Georgian residence permit. If an alien obtains an immigration visa under this paragraph, the period of his/her unlawful stay in Georgia shall be deemed valid and he/she shall be exempted from the penalty prescribed by the legislation of Georgia. An alien shall not be subject to removal from Georgia until the final decision on the issuance of an immigration visa has been made.
