ADMINISTRATIVE OFFENCES CODE OF GEORGIA

Section I - General Provisions

Chapter I - General Provisions

Article 1 - Objectives of the legislation of Georgia on administrative offences

The objective of the legislation of Georgia on administrative offences is to protect the property, socioeconomic, political and personal rights and freedoms of citizens, also the rights and legitimate interests of enterprises, institutions and organisations, the established rule of governance, state and public order; to ensure the avoidance of offences; and to educate citizens in the spirit of exact and strict observance of the Constitution of Georgia, laws of Georgia, respect for the rights of other citizens, honour and dignity, the ways of social life and fulfilment of assigned duties.

To accomplish the objective, the Code of Georgia on Administrative Offences determines the actions or inaction that constitute an administrative offence, as well as administrative penalties, the procedure for their imposition and the administrative bodies (officials) authorised to impose administrative penalties on perpetrators.

Article 2 - Legislation of Georgia on administrative offences

The legislation of Georgia on administrative offences consists of this Code of Administrative Offences and other legislative acts of Georgia.

Article 3 - (Deleted)

Article 4 - (Deleted)

Article 5 - Jurisdiction of the Abkhazian ASSR and the Ajarian ASSR in the field of legislation on administrative offences

Under the legislation of Georgia, Abkhazian ASSR and Ajarian ASSR in the field of legislation on administrative offences shall have authority to:

Determine administrative liability in matters related to protection of public order, unless these matters are regulated by this Code, as well as in matters relating to fighting natural disasters and epidemics.

Establish rules, the violation of which carries administrative liability under Articles 86, 102, 148 and 157 of this Code.

Article 6 - (Deleted)

Article 7 - Avoiding administrative offences

Public authorities, social organisations and collectives of workers shall develop and implement measures to avoid administrative offences, identify and prevent the causes and conditions contributing to their commission, and to educate citizens in the spirit of high consciousness and discipline, and strict observance of the laws.

State and local government bodies, which ensure the enforcement of laws under the Constitution of Georgia, as well as the protection of state and public order and the rights of citizens, shall coordinate within their jurisdictions the operation of all state and public bodies so as to avoid administrative offences, and supervise the activity of internal affairs bodies tasked with fighting administrative offences.

Article 8 - Ensuring the lawfulness of sanctioning for administrative offences

No one may be sanctioned for administrative offences except on the basis of, and according to the procedure laid down by, the legislation.

Proceedings for administrative offences shall be conducted with strict observance of the law.

Authorised bodies and officials shall impose sanctions for administrative offences within their scope of authority, in strict compliance with the legislation.

A systematic control by superior bodies and officials, prosecutorial supervision, the right to appeal and other remedies determined by the legislation shall ensure observance of the requirements of the legislation in imposing sanctions for administrative offences.

Article 9 - Operation of the legislation concerning liability for administrative offences

An administrative offender shall be held liable based on the legislation that is in force at the time and at the place where the offence is committed.

Normative acts reducing or abolishing penalties for administrative offences shall have retroactive force, i.e. they also apply to administrative offences committed before the issue of such acts. Acts introducing or increasing penalties for administrative offences shall have no retroactive force.

Proceedings for administrative offences shall be conducted based on the legislation that is in force at the time and at the place at which the hearing on the offence is held.

Section II - Administrative Offence and Administrative Liability

I – General Part

Chapter 2 - Administrative Offence and Administrative Liability

http://www.matsne.gov.ge
Article 10 - Definition of an administrative offence

An administrative offence (infraction) shall be an unlawful, culpable action or inaction (whether intentional or negligent) that violate the rules established to protect the State or public order, property, rights and freedoms of citizens, the established rule of governance, and for which the legislation prescribes an administrative liability.

Administrative liability for the offences provided for by this Code arises if because of their nature the offences do not incur criminal liability under the current legislation.

Article 11- Committing administrative offences intentionally

An administrative offence shall be deemed to have been committed intentionally if the offender was aware of the unlawful character of his/her action or inaction, foresaw its harmful consequences and intended to cause or consciously permitted them to occur.

Article 12 - Committing administrative offences through negligence

An administrative offence shall be deemed to have been committed negligently if the offender foresaw the possibility of the occurrence of harmful consequences of his/her act or omission but recklessly assumed their avoidance or did not foresee the possibility of the occurrence of such consequences, although he/she ought to have and could have foreseen them.

Article 13 –The age at which a person is subject to administrative liability

Persons who have reached the age of sixteen by the time that an administrative offence is committed shall be subject to administrative liability.

Article 14 - (Deleted)

Article 15 - Liability of officials

Administrative liability shall be imposed on officials for administrative offences caused by non-compliance with rules of governance, rules protecting state and public order, nature, public health and with other rules, the ensuring of the observance of which is their official duty.

Article 16 - Administrative liability of military personnel and of other persons to whom disciplinary regulations apply

1. Military personnel, persons called up for military refresher training and employees of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall incur liability for an administrative offence according to disciplinary regulations, and in the case of the violation of military service rules, road traffic rules, hunting, fishing and fish preserve maintenance rules provided by this Code and for violating the rules defined by the Tax Code of Georgia for movement of goods across the customs border of Georgia, for buying or storing small quantities of narcotic drugs without an intent to sell them and/or for using narcotic drugs without a doctor's prescription, shall be subject to administrative liability on a general basis, except as provided in paragraph 1 of this article. Corrective labour may not be imposed on these persons.

1. For committing the administrative offences specified in Articles 45, 116, 166 and 173 of this Code, employees of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall be subject to administrative liability on a general basis as well as according to the disciplinary regulations.

2. Persons, other than those referred to in paragraph 1 of this article, to whom disciplinary regulations or special disciplinary provisions apply, shall be subject to disciplinary liability for committing administrative offences in the cases directly provided by such regulations or provisions, and in the rest of the cases administrative liability shall be imposed on them on a general basis.

3. In the cases set out in paragraph 1 of this article, the bodies (officials) who are authorised to impose administrative penalties, may instead forward the materials regarding offences to the relevant bodies for the imposition of disciplinary liability on the offenders.

Law of Georgia No 4322 of 29 December 2006 – LHG I, No 4, 12.1.2007, Art. 62
Law of Georgia No 3593 of 17 September 2010 – LHG I, No 54, 12.10.2010, Art. 345
Article 17 - Liability of aliens and stateless persons

1. Aliens and stateless persons in the territory of Georgia shall bear administrative liability equally with Georgian citizens, on a general basis, unless otherwise determined by this Code.

2. The question of liability for an administrative offence committed by an alien in the territory of Georgia who, under the treaties and international agreements of Georgia, enjoys immunity from the administrative jurisdiction of Georgia shall be resolved by diplomatic means.

Law of Georgia No 2962 of 28 April 2006 – LHG I, No 15, 16.5.2006, Art. 110

Article 18 - Extreme necessity

No administrative penalty shall be imposed on a person who, when committing an act provided by this Code and by other normative acts prescribing administrative liability for administrative offences, was acting in a state of extreme necessity, i.e. to ward off a danger threatening state or public order, property, rights and freedoms of citizens, the established rule of governance if under the given circumstances the danger could not have been averted by other means or if the harm done is less serious than the averted danger.

Article 19 –Necessary defence

No administrative liability shall be imposed on a person who, when committing an offence provided by this Code and by other normative acts prescribing administrative liability for administrative offences, was acting in a state of necessary defence, i.e. inflicting harm on a wrongdoer when averting an unlawful breach of state or public order, property, rights and freedoms of citizens, the established rule of governance, provided the limits of necessary defence were not exceeded.

Article 20 - Insanity

No administrative penalty shall be imposed on a person who at the moment of committing a culpable action or inaction was in a state of insanity, i.e. was unable to appreciate the wrongfulness of his/her actions or to control such actions due to chronic mental illness, temporary disruption of mental condition, feeblemindedness or some other pathological condition.

Article 21 - Forwarding administrative offence materials for hearing by a comrades’ court, social organisation or a collective of workers

An administrative offender shall be released from administrative liability and the materials shall be forwarded for hearing to a comrades' court, social organisation or a collective of workers if, taking into account the nature of the offence committed and the person of the offender, it is appropriate to impose social sanctions on him/her.

A comrades’ court or public organisation set up in an enterprise, institution, organisation or in their structural units shall be obligated to notify, within ten days, the body (official) that forwarded the materials of the social sanctions imposed on the perpetrators of the administrative offences provided in Articles 50, 119, 122, 126, 155, 159, 161, 170 and 171 of this Code.

Article 22 - Possibility of granting relief from administrative liability for petty offences

If a petty administrative offence is committed, the body (official) authorised to decide the case, may release the offender from administrative liability with only a verbal warning.
Chapter 3 - Administrative Penalty

Article 23 - Purpose of an administrative penalty

An administrative penalty is a measure of liability and is applied to educate an administrative perpetrator in the spirit of respect for the rule of law, the ways of social life as well as to avoid the commission of new offences, either by the offender or other persons.

Article 24 - Types of administrative penalties

1. The following administrative penalties may apply for committing administrative offences:

a) a warning;

b) a fine;

c) the compensated seizure of an item that was an instrument or material object of an administrative offence or an object of violation of the rules for movement of goods across the customs border of Georgia defined by the Tax Code of Georgia, or the means of transportation and delivery of goods;

d) confiscation of an item that was an instrument or material object of an administrative offence or an object of violation of the rules for movement of goods across the customs border of Georgia defined by the Tax Code of Georgia, or the means of transportation and delivery of goods;

e) suspension of the right to drive a motor vehicle granted to a citizen;

es) deprivation of the right to carry arms;

f) corrective labour;

c) administrative detention.

2. The laws of Georgia may prescribe an administrative removal from Georgia for administrative offences committed by aliens and stateless persons who grossly violate law and order.

3. Deprivation of the right to carry arms shall mean depriving the right to carry service weapons, short-barrel defence firearms and/or short-barrel rifled sports guns. This type of administrative penalty shall apply to persons specified in Article 9 of the Law of Georgia on Arms if they commit offences defined by the Special Part of this Code. The decision to deprive a person of the right to carry arms shall enter into force from the day following the date of issue of the relevant administrative-legal act.

Article 25 - Main and additional administrative penalties

1. The compensated seizure of an item, confiscation of an item, warning, fine, suspension of a driving licence and corrective labour may be applied both as main and additional administrative penalties. Administrative detention may be applied only as a main administrative penalty. Deprivation of the right to carry arms may be applied only as an additional administrative penalty.

2. A main administrative penalty, or main and additional administrative penalties, may be imposed for one administrative offence.

Article 26 - Warning

Warning as a measure of administrative penalty shall be issued in writing. Where so provided by law, a warning may be executed in another established way.

Article 27 - Fine

A fine imposed on citizens and officials for administrative offences may not be less than one hundredth of the minimum wage.

Ordinance No. 1842 of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet the Georgian SSR of 15 August 1988 – Gazette of the Supreme Soviet of the Georgian SSR, No 8, August, 1988, Art. 201

Article 28 - Compensated seizure of the item that was an instrument or a material object of an administrative offence

1. The compensated seizure of an item that was an instrument or a material object of an administrative offence or an object of violation of the rules for movement of goods across the customs border of Georgia as defined by the Tax Code of Georgia, a means of transportation or delivery of goods, shall mean its forced dispossession and subsequent sale, where the proceeds of the sale are given to the owner, net of expenses related to the sale of the dispossessed item.

2. A person for whom hunting is the main source of subsistence may not be dispossessed of a firearm and ammunition.

3. The procedure for imposing a compensated seizure and the types of items subject to confiscation shall be determined under the legislation of Georgia.

Article 30 - Deprivation of a driving licence granted to a citizen

1. A driving licence granted to a citizen shall be suspended for up to three years for a gross or systematic violation of the rules for using the licence. The licence suspension period shall not be less than 15 days, unless otherwise provided by the legislative acts of Georgia.

2. The driving licence of a person using the vehicle due to his/her disability status shall not be suspended unless he/she drives in a state of alcoholic, narcotic or psychotropic intoxication.

Article 31 - Corrective labour

Corrective labour shall be applied for a period of up to six months and the administrative offender shall serve the corrective labour sentence at his/her permanent workplace. In addition, up to 20 per cent shall be deducted from the salary of the offender for the benefit of the State. A corrective labour sentence shall be imposed on a person by a district (city) court judge, or an administrative judge. The period of corrective labour may not be less than 15 days, unless otherwise provided by the legislative acts of Georgia.

Article 32 - Administrative detention

1. Administrative detention for up to 15 days shall be imposed and applied only in exceptional cases, for violation of certain types of military service rules and for administrative offences. Administrative detention shall be imposed on a person by the relevant district (city) court judge.

2. If a military personnel violates a military service rule or commits the administrative offences provided in Articles 45 and 166 of this Code, a court shall hear a case for imposition of administrative detention based on the application of the relevant authorised person of the Military Police Department of the Ministry of Defence of Georgia or of the authorised person of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia. In all the other cases, the relevant authorised person of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall apply to the court for imposition of administrative detention.

3. Administrative detention may not be imposed on pregnant women or on women who have children less than twelve years of age, to persons who have not attained 18 years of age, or on the first and second categories of disabled persons.

Chapter 4 - Imposition of Administrative Penalties

Article 33 - General rules for imposing penalties for administrative offences

A penalty for an administrative offence shall be imposed to the extent defined by the normative act that prescribes liability in strict compliance with this Code of Administrative Offences and other acts on administrative offences.
When imposing a penalty, due regard shall be had for the nature of the offence, the person of the offender, the gravity of his/her fault, his/her material status, and extenuating and aggravating circumstances.

Article 34 - Circumstances mitigating liability for administrative offences

The following shall be deemed to be extenuating circumstances for imposing liability for administrative offences:

1) sincere repentance by the offender;
2) aversion of the adverse consequences of the offence, voluntary compensation of damages or remediation of the harm by the offender;
3) commission of an offence in the heat of passion or due to the concurrence of grave personal or family circumstances;
4) commission of an offence by a minor;
5) commission of an offence by a pregnant woman or by a woman who has a child under one year of age.

The legislation of Georgia may also provide for other mitigating circumstances for administrative offences. A body (official) who is authorised to decide a case of an administrative offence may deem as extenuating other circumstances that are not specified in the legislation.

Article 35 - Circumstances aggravating liability for administrative offences

The following shall be deemed to be circumstances aggravating liability for administrative offences:

1) continuation of an unlawful conduct heedless of the demand of authorised persons to cease;
2) repeated commission of a similar offence during a year, for which the person has already been subjected to administrative liability; commission of an offence by a person who has previously committed a crime;
3) involvement of a minor into an offence;
4) commission of an offence by a group of persons;
5) commission of an offence during natural disasters or in other extraordinary circumstances;
6) commission of an offence in a state of alcoholic intoxication; the body (official) authorised to impose an administrative penalty has the right not find this circumstance to be aggravating.

Article 36 - Imposing administrative liability for several administrative offences

If a person has committed two or more administrative offences, an administrative penalty shall be imposed separately for each offence.

If a person has committed several administrative offences, which are concurrently heard by the same body (official), a penalty shall be imposed to the extent of the sanction that is prescribed for more serious violations. In that case, one of the additional penalties stipulated by the articles prescribing punishment for any of the committed offence may be added to the main penalty.

Article 36¹ - Administrative liability for violation of licence or permit conditions

1. Failure of a licence or permit holder to fulfil licence or permit conditions within the period fixed after the imposition of an administrative penalty shall result in tripling the imposed fine according to the rule laid down by the Law of Georgia on Licences and Permits.
2. If a licence or permit holder fails to fulfil the licence or permit conditions after the expiry of the period fixed after the imposition of a tripled fine, the imposed fine shall be tripled according to the rule laid down by the Law of Georgia on Licences and Permits.

Article 37 - Calculating the term of administrative penalties

The term of an administrative detention shall be calculated in days, the period of corrective labour in months or days, and the period of suspension of special rights in years or months.

http://www.matsne.gov.ge
Article 38 - Period for imposing administrative penalties

1. An administrative penalty may be imposed no later than two months after the day that an offence is committed, but if the offence is continuing, no later than two months after the day that it is detected.

2. If an administrative offence falls within the jurisdiction of a district (city) court, the time limit for imposing an administrative penalty provided in paragraph 1 of this article shall not exceed four months, except as provided for in Articles 159-1599 of this Code.

21. Where so provided for in Articles 1595-1599 of this Code, if an administrative offence falls within the jurisdiction of a district (city) court the period for imposing an administrative penalty provided in paragraph 1 of this article shall not exceed six months after the day the offence is detected.

3. If a criminal prosecution or investigation is terminated but there are elements of an administrative offence in the offender's actions, an administrative penalty may be imposed no later than one month after the day the decision on the termination of the criminal prosecution or investigation is made.

31. If an administrative offence report is appealed to a district (city) court, the period for imposing an administrative liability provided in paragraph 1 of this article shall be suspended until the court delivers a final decision on the case.

4. The time limits set out in this article shall not apply to the imposition of confiscation of items of smuggling under the Tax Code or of the sanction prescribed by Article 1901 of this Code.

Law of Georgia No 3593 of 17 September 2010 – LHG I, No 54, 12.10.2010, Art. 345

Law of Georgia No 2375 of 2 May 2014 – website, 16.5.2014

Article 39 - The period after the expiry of which a person is deemed not to have been subjected to an administrative penalty

If a person who is subjected to an administrative penalty has not committed a new administrative offence during one year after having served the penalty, he/she shall be deemed not to have been subjected to an administrative penalty.

Note: where a fine is imposed as a penalty, a person shall be deemed not to have been subjected to an administrative penalty if he/she does not commit a new administrative offence within one year after the day on which the fine is imposed.

Article 40 - Imposing an obligation to compensate the inflicted material damage

1. If an administrative offence inflicts material damage on a citizen, enterprise, institution, organisation or the State, then in deciding the imposition of a penalty for the administrative offence, the judge shall be obligated to concurrently impose upon the offender the obligation to compensate for the material damage done.

11. Where so expressly provided by this Code, a person may be released from the obligation to pay damages.

2. In the cases provided in Articles 116(7), 119(8), 120(4), 121(3) and 125(5),(10), where a vehicle has been damaged, the offender has been identified and the relevant fine has been issued, based on the application filed by the victim (owner/holder of the vehicle) and on the damaged vehicle examination report issued by an authorised expert institution, an authorised person of the Patrol Police Department of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall adopt a relevant resolution and based on it issue a writ of execution imposing upon the offender the obligation to restore the damaged vehicle to the victim (owner/holder of the vehicle) or, if the vehicle cannot be restored, pay the costs required to replace it.

3. In the case referred to in paragraph 2 of this article, an authorised person of the Patrol Police Department of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall consider an application requesting the adoption of a relevant resolution and the issuance of a writ of execution if the application and the examination report indicated in the same paragraph have been submitted not later than ten calendar days after the relevant fine was issued.

31. A writ of execution shall be issued based on the resolution on the payment of material damages specified in paragraph 1 of this article no later than five days after the expiry of the 10-day period fixed by Article 273 of this Code for appealing a fine (a resolution on the imposition of an administrative penalty for an administrative offence).

4. The resolution specified in paragraph 2 of this article shall be adopted and the writ of execution shall be issued not later than five days after the expiry of the 10-day period fixed by Article 273 of this Code for appealing a fine (a resolution), provided that the fine has not been appealed. If the receipt has been appealed, the resolution specified in paragraph 2 of this article shall be adopted and a writ of execution shall be issued after the superior body has rejected the appeal or, if the resolution has been appealed by a court, the resolution shall be adopted and a writ of execution shall be issued after the court of first instance delivers a judgement.

5. If a writ of execution specified in this article and a relevant application are submitted, the enforcement bureau shall be obligated to implement measures necessary for the enforcement of the writ of execution, inter alia, attach on a priority basis and/or sell a motor vehicle with which any of the administrative offences indicated in paragraph 2 of this article have been committed.

   a) a resolution specified in this article is adopted and a writ of execution defined in this article is issued and/or enforced, the victim and the offender may suspend or terminate enforcement at any time by written agreement;
   b) if a resolution and a writ of execution defined in this article are appealed, the dispute shall be heard by a court according to the procedure laid down by the legislation of Georgia.

7. A victim who does not resort to the provisions of paragraphs 2-6 of this article may litigate with the offender according to the procedure laid down by the civil legislation of Georgia.

8. The Minister of Internal Affairs of Georgia shall determine the form of the writ of execution defined in this article and the procedure for issuing it.

Article 40 - Procedure for compensation of material damages inflicted on the State and/or on a local self-governing unit as a result of an administrative offence

1. If an administrative offence inflicts material damage on the State and/or on a local self-governing unit, after having determined the extent of the damage, the interested body/official shall issue an administrative-legal act for the compensation of the damage (except as provided in Article 40 of this Code) and forward it to the offender. The period fixed by the interested body/official for the compensation of damages shall not exceed 30 days.

2. If necessary, the interested body/official may call the offender in to give a statement.

3. The administrative-legal act indicated in paragraph 1 of this article shall be appealed according to the procedure laid down by the legislation of Georgia.

4. If the offender does not pay the damages within the period defined by the administrative act indicated in paragraph 1 of this article, the administrative-legal act on the compensation of damages shall be enforceable according to the Law of Georgia on Enforcement Proceedings.

Note: for the purposes of this article, the interested body/official shall be a state body/official and/or a self-governing unit body/official or a legal entity under public law that owns or uses the state and/or self-governing unit’s property that has been damaged as a result of the administrative offence or that is entitled under the legislation of Georgia to claim the damages.

Article 41 - Performance of the duty for the non-performance of which an administrative penalty has been imposed

In the resolution imposing an administrative penalty the judge shall affirm the obligation of a person to perform the duty for the non-performance of which the administrative penalty has been imposed, and shall determine measures to be implemented to remedy the violation; such measures shall be implemented according to the procedure laid down by law.

Section IV – Administrative Proceedings

Chapter 17 – Main Provisions

Article 230 - Objectives of administrative proceedings

The objective of administrative proceedings is: to timely, comprehensively, effectively and objectively investigate the circumstances of every case, resolve the cases in full compliance with the legislation, ensure the execution of delivered orders, and also identify the causes and conditions contributing to the commission of administrative offences, prevent further offences, educate citizens in the spirit of the observance of the laws and enhance the rule of law.

Article 231 - Procedure for conducting administrative proceedings

The procedure for conducting administrative proceedings in the agencies (by the officials) authorised to hear cases of administrative offences shall be determined by this Code and other normative acts of Georgia.

The procedure for conducting administrative proceedings in courts shall be determined by this Code and other legislative acts of Georgia.

Article 232 – Circumstances in which administrative proceedings may not be conducted

Administrative proceedings may not be initiated, or already initiated administrative proceedings shall be terminated:

1) if the administrative offence has not occurred;
2) if the person has not attained the age of 16 by the time the administrative offence was committed;
3) if the person committing the unlawful action or omission is not mentally competent;
4) if the action of the person constitutes an act of extreme necessity or necessary self-defence;
5) if an act of amnesty has been adopted abolishing the administrative penalty in question;
6) if an act establishing an administrative liability has been cancelled;
7) if the period prescribed under Article 38 of this Code has expired;
8) if there is an order issued by a competent authority imposing an administrative penalty on the person held administratively liable, or if there is an unreversed decision of a comrades’ court, provided the case material has been handed to the comrades’ court by the authority (official) authorised to impose an administrative penalty for the given offence, or if there is an unreversed order on the termination of the administrative proceedings, or if criminal prosecution has been initiated on the case in question;
9) if the person with respect to whom the administrative proceedings have been initiated has died;

Article 233 – Administrative proceedings conducted based on the principle of equality of citizens

Article 234 - Open administrative proceedings

Administrative cases shall be heard openly.

To increase the educative and cautionary role of the administrative proceedings, such cases may be heard directly by the staff, or at the offender’s place of study or residence.

Article 234¹ - Hearing cases of administrative offences at the scene

Where so provided by this Code, a case may be heard at the scene of the offence, which means a comprehensive, effective and objective investigation of the case, the resolution of the case in strict compliance with the legislation of Georgia, the imposition of an administrative penalty at the scene and the service of a fine receipt upon the offender at the scene.

Law of Georgia No 2962 of 28 April 2006 – LHG I, No 15, 16.5.2006, Art. 110

Article 235 - Prosecutorial supervision over the observance of the laws in administrative proceedings

In exercising supervision over the observance of the laws in administrative proceedings, a prosecutor may initiate administrative proceedings; familiarise himself/herself with the case material; examine the lawfulness of the actions of the agencies (officials) during the proceedings; take part in a hearing; make motions, give opinions on issues arising during a hearing; examine the correctness of the application of administrative sanctions by the relevant bodies (officials); file objections against the orders and decisions made on an application filed in connection with an administrative offence; suspend the execution of an order, or perform any other acts provided by law.

Article 236 - Evidence

1. The evidence in an administrative case shall be all those facts based on which the relevant body (official) establishes, according to the procedure defined by the legislation of Georgia, the existence or non-existence of an administrative offence, the guilt of a person in its commission, and other circumstances that are important for correct resolution of the case.

2. These facts shall be established by the following means: an administrative offence report, the statement of a person prosecuted for the administrative offence, the victim and witness statements, an expert’s opinion, the findings of an alcohol, drug or psychotropic test, a videotape or photo-film, material evidence, a report on the seizure of an item or document, and any other documents.

Law of Georgia No 2962 of 28 April 2006 – LHG I, No 15, 16.5.2006, Art. 110

Article 237 - Evaluation of evidence

Being guided by law and legal consciousness, the relevant body (official) shall evaluate evidence with his/her inner conviction based on a comprehensive, full and objective examination of all the circumstances of the case in their entirety.

Article 238 - Handing materials over to a prosecutor or an investigation body

If during the hearing of the case the body (official) concludes that the offence contains elements of a crime, it shall hand the materials over to a prosecutor or an investigation body.

Article 239 - Administrative Offence Report

1. A report shall be prepared in connection with an administrative offence by a duly authorised official or social organisation or by a representative of a local community body. No report shall be prepared where so provided by Article 242 of this Code.

Article 249 - Seizure of belongings and documents

1. The belongings and documents that are discovered at the moment of an arrest, personal inspection or inspection of the belongings, and that constitute the instrument or direct object of the offence shall be seized by the officials of the bodies indicated in Articles 246 and 248 of this Code. Until the case hearing, the seized belongings and documents shall be stored at the place designated by the bodies (officials) authorised to seize items and documents and, after the hearing, according to the outcome of the hearing, shall be duly confiscated or returned to the possessor or destroyed or, in the case of compensated seizure, shall be sold. Any seized order, medal, or badge of a Georgian honorary title must be returned to its rightful owner or, if the owner is unknown, sent to the Presidium of the Supreme Council of the Republic of Georgia.

2. In the case of the administrative offences defined in Articles 58, 86(9),(10), 114, 128, 153, 155 and 157 of this Code, the object of the offence and/or the vehicle may be seized to secure the payment of a fine. If the fine is not paid within the time defined by the legislation of Georgia, the seized object and vehicle shall be sold according to the procedure laid down by the legislation of Georgia.

3. In the case of the administrative offences defined in Article 114 of this Code, a small-size ship may be seized to secure the payment of a fine and of a surcharge. If the fine and surcharge not paid within the time defined by the legislation of Georgia, the seized small-size ship shall be sold according to the procedure laid down by the legislation of Georgia.

2. In the case of any of the administrative offences defined in Articles 66 and 128 of this Code, the timber that is discovered at the moment of the offender's arrest, personal inspection or inspection of belongings, and that is the direct object of the offence may be temporarily left with the possessor and/or the relevant representative of the local self-government body; the timber seized or discovered in the territory of the State Forest Fund may be temporarily left with the persons responsible for forest protection and working for the relevant administrative body that has the forest management right (except for timber seized or discovered in the territory allocated to the relevant licensee in the cases defined by the legislation of Georgia; in this case the timber shall be entrusted to the licensee or its representative) who shall also be responsible for protecting the entrusted timber. If the owner or rightful possessor of the timber cannot be identified within the time defined by this Code for the imposition of an administrative penalty, the timber shall be disposed of according to the procedure laid down by the legislation of Georgia.

3. When items and documents are seized, a report shall be prepared and/or the relevant record shall be made in the report on the administrative offence, inspection of belongings or on administrative arrest.

4. If the relevant article of this Code provides for the suspension of a driving license as an administrative penalty for an administrative offence, then, until the order is issued on the case, the driver shall be deprived of the driving license and given a temporary driving permit; this fact shall be indicated in the administrative offence report. If the issued order requires suspension of the driving license, the temporarily suspended license shall not be returned to the driver, and if the order is appealed (objected), the temporary driving permit shall be prolonged for the period required for making a decision on the appeal (objection).

5. In the case of the administrative offences defined in Article 167, 180, 181(1),(2), 182 and 183 of this Code, until the case hearing, the police officers may confiscate the firearm and ammunition; this fact shall be indicated in the report with reference to the make or model, calibre, series and number of the firearm, the quantity and type of ammunition. Seizure, personal inspection or inspection of belongings with relation to a person who committed an offence in the line of duty shall apply only in an emergency.

Note: the temporary driving permit provided in paragraph 4 of this article concurrently constitutes an administrative offence report; the form and the rules for completion and use of this report shall be approved by the Minister of Internal Affairs of Georgia.

If an order imposing an administrative penalty is appealed or an objection is filed, it shall be enforced after the appeal or objection has been rejected, except for an order imposing a warning as a penalty, also except for the case provided in paragraph 3 of this article, or except where a fine is imposed and collected from a person at the scene of an administrative offence.

3. Appealing of orders issued in the administrative cases provided in Articles 208 and 208\(^2\) of this Code shall not suspend their enforcement, unless otherwise determined by this Code and other legislative acts of Georgia.

4. An order imposing an administrative fine shall be enforced compulsorily after the expiry of the time defined by Article 290(1) of this Code for voluntary payment.

5. An order imposing an administrative penalty shall be enforced by the body (official) that issued the order.

Law of Georgia No 6090 of 26 April 2012 – website, 10.5.2012

Article 248 - Procedure for enforcing orders that impose an administrative penalty

1. An order imposing an administrative penalty shall be enforced by the authorised agencies according to the procedure laid down by this Code and other legislative acts of Georgia.

2. An administrative detention order, including an administrative detention order against a military service person of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia, shall be enforced by the agencies of internal affairs and, in the case of a military service person of another agency, by the Ministry of Defence of Georgia, according to the procedure laid down by the legislation of Georgia.

3. If several orders imposing an administrative penalty are issued against one person, each order shall be enforced individually.

Article 285 - Postponing the enforcement of orders imposing an administrative penalty

If there are circumstances preventing immediate enforcement of orders imposing administrative detention, corrective labour or a fine (except where a fine is collected at the scene of an administrative offence) as an administrative penalty, the agency (official) that issued the order may postpone the enforcement of the order for up to one month.

Article 286 - Terminating the enforcement of orders imposing an administrative penalty

The agency (official) that issued an order on the imposition of an administrative detention shall terminate the enforcement of the order:
1) if an act of amnesty is applied, provided the act repeals the administrative penalty;
2) if the act establishing the administrative liability is repealed;
3) if the person against whom the order was issued dies.

Article 287 – Period of limitation of orders imposing an administrative penalty

An order imposing an administrative penalty shall not be enforced if it is not enforced within six months after the order is issued. If the enforcement of an order is suspended under Article 275 of this Code, the period of limitation shall stop until the appeal or objection is heard. If the enforcement of an order is postponed under Article 285 of this Code, the period of limitation shall stop until the postponement period expires.

The legislation of Georgia may prescribe other, longer time limits for enforcing orders issued in certain administrative cases.

Article 288 - Resolving the issues related to the enforcement of orders

The agency (official) that issued an order imposing an administrative penalty shall be responsible for resolving the issues relating to the enforcement of the order and for exercising control over its enforcement.

Article 2881 - Enforcing orders replacing an administrative penalty with another administrative penalty

An order replacing an administrative penalty with another administrative penalty shall be enforced according to the procedure defined for the enforcement of orders imposing an administrative penalty.

Chapter 24 - Warning Order Enforcement Proceedings

Article 289 - Procedure for enforcing warning orders

An order imposing a warning as an administrative penalty shall be enforced by the agency (official) that issued the order after the order is announced publicly at end of the hearing.

If an order imposing a warning as an administrative penalty is issued in the absence of the offender, a copy of the order shall be served upon the offender according to the procedure provided by Article 268 of this Code.

Chapter 25 - Enforcement Proceedings on Orders that Impose a Fine

Article 290 - Time frames and procedure for enforcing orders that impose a fine

1. An offender shall pay the fine within 30 days after having been served with a copy of the order that imposes the fine or, if fined at the scene, within 30 days after having been served with a fine receipt; in the cases described in Article 242(4) of this Code, within 30 days after the fine receipt is delivered by mail to the vehicle owner or to any of the adult family member living with him/her at the specified address; in the cases of the administrative offences provided in Articles 208 and 2082 of this Code, within seven days after a copy of the order that imposes a fine is served on him/her. This period shall be suspended if the order, or the order issued after hearing the administrative case at the scene under Article 234 of this Code, is appealed or objected to, until the notice of rejection of the appeal or objection is delivered, except as provided by paragraph 1 of this article.

1. If administrative offences defined in Articles 116, 118, 119, 120-123, 125 and 127 of this Code are committed the offender may pay the fine together with the surcharge within 30 days after the expiry of the time defined in paragraph 1 of this article. If the fine or surcharge is not paid within this period, the offender’s licence to drive a vehicle (an agricultural machine) shall be suspended for the period defined by the relevant article of this Code. After the period of suspension of the driving licence expires, the driver’s right to drive shall be restored. The restoration of the right to drive does not require taking a test.

2. In the cases provided in Article 242(4) of this Code, a copy of the fine receipt may be served upon the offender in person.

3. If in the cases provided in Article 242(4) of this Code the vehicle owner refuses to accept the fine receipt delivered to him/her by mail, the person delivering the fine receipt shall make the relevant indication on the mail, which shall be returned to the person that imposed the administrative penalty (fine). In that case, the fine receipt shall be deemed to have been served on the addressee.

4. A fine receipt shall be deemed to have been served on the addressee if any adult family member living with the vehicle owner at his/her address repeatedly refuses to accept the fine receipt delivered by mail.

5. An appeal filed against an order issued in the administrative cases provided in Articles 208 and 2082 of this Code shall not suspend the running of the time limits defined in paragraph 1 of this article.

2. If persons aged 16 to 18 have committed disorderly conduct and do not have independent income, the fine shall be imposed on their parents or their substitutes.

3. An offender shall deposit the sum imposed for an administrative offence with a banking institution or its branch operating in any administrative-territorial unit of Georgia in order to transfer the sum to the State Budget of Georgia. When transferring the money, the offender’s details (first name, surname, personal number), the number, date and serial number (if any) of the relevant individual administrative-legal act or court order imposing the administrative penalty shall be indicated.

3. If the amount of the fine imposed for an administrative offence is not fully transferred to the State Budget of Georgia due to the deduction of the service fees by the banking institution or by an electronic payment machine and this results in the imposition of a surcharge upon the offender, or the suspension of the driving licence due to failure to pay the fine or surcharge within a specified period, the surcharge imposed on him/her, or the order suspending his/her right to drive a vehicle due to the failure to pay the fine or surcharge within the specified period, shall be cancelled, and the offender’s right to drive shall be restored and the driving license for the vehicle shall be returned to him/her if the offender fully pays the remaining amount of the fine.

4. The fines imposed on officials may not be collected from the accounts of enterprises, institutions and organisations.

5. An order suspending the offender’s right to drive a vehicle due to the failure to pay the fine or surcharge within the specified period shall be cancelled and the driving license for the vehicle shall be returned to the offender if the amount of the fine imposed upon him/her for an administrative offence:

a) does not exceed GEL 100 and the offender pays, before the expiry of the period of suspension of the driving licence, double the amount of the fine and surcharge imposed before the suspension of the driving licence.

b) exceeds GEL 100 and the offender pays, before the expiry of the period of suspension of the driving licence, one and a half times the fine and surcharge imposed before the suspension of the driving licence, but not in excess of GEL 2,000.

6. If the last day of the period defined in paragraph 1 of this article coincides with a weekend (Saturday, Sunday) or a holiday determined by the labour legislation of Georgia, the day of the expiry of the period shall be considered to be the first business day following it.

Ordinance according to the procedure prescribed by this Code.

Article 292 – Enforcement of a fine that is to be collected at the scene of the offence

If a fine is to be paid at the scene of an administrative offence under Article 242 of this Code, the offender shall be given a receipt in an established form, which is a strict accounting document.

If the fine is not paid at the scene of an administrative offence, the proceedings and subsequently the enforcement of the order shall be conducted according to the procedure prescribed by this Code.

http://www.matsne.gov.ge
Article 293 – Completion of the proceedings on an order that imposes a fine
The fine order, under which the fine has been paid in full, shall be returned with the indication ‘enforced’ to the body (official) that issued the order.

Chapter 26 - Proceedings on Compensated Seizure Orders

Article 294 - Enforcing compensated seizure orders
The agency (official) that issued a compensated seizure order shall consign the seized items for sale to a commission shop or to designated state or cooperative shops according to the location of the seized property.
An order for the compensated seizure of a firearm or ammunition shall be enforced by the agencies of internal affairs.
The proceeds of the sale of a seized item shall be given, according to Article 28 of this Code, to the former owner, net of the expenses incurred for the sale of the seized item.
The legislation of Georgia may prescribe another rule for enforcing compensated seizure orders.

Chapter 27 - Confiscation Order Proceedings

Article - Bodies enforcing confiscation orders
1. A confiscation order shall be enforced by:

a) an enforcement officer – in the case of the offences provided in Article 208 of this Code; an authorised person of an agency of internal affairs – in the case of the offences defined in Articles 167, 180, 181(2) and 183 of this Code; b) an authorised person of the agencies providing state supervision over the observance of hunting rules – in the case of the offences defined in Articles 85, 86 (for violation of hunting rules) and 196 of this Code;
c) an authorised person of the relevant agencies of the Ministry of Finance – in the case of the offences defined in Articles 157 and 194 of this Code;

2. The products indicated in the Note to Article 98 of this Code shall be confiscated and destroyed at the offender’s expense by the authorised official exercising control over the quality of agriculture.

Law of the Republic of Georgia No 519 of 14 June 1994
Article 296 - Procedure for enforcement of confiscation orders

A confiscation order shall be enforced by seizing the confiscated item and transferring it to the State compulsorily, without compensation.

Article 297 - Procedure for selling confiscated items

A confiscated item that was the instrument or direct object of an administrative offence, shall be sold according to the procedure laid down by the legislation of Georgia.

Article 298 – Completion of confiscation order enforcement proceedings

A confiscation order shall be returned with the indication 'enforced' to the agency (official) that issued the order.

Chapter 28 - Enforcement Proceedings of Orders that Suspend Special Rights

1. An order on the suspension of the right to drive a vehicle shall be deemed to be enforced from the date of its entry into force.
2. A person shall be deprived of a driving licence if his/her right to drive a vehicle has been suspended.
3. The rules for suspending the right to drive a vehicle, for reducing the driving right suspension period, for restoring a suspended driving right and for returning a seized driving licence shall be defined by the Minister of Internal Affairs of Georgia.

Law of Georgia No 2962 of 28 April 2006 – LHG I, No 15, 16.5.2006, Art. 110

Article 301 - (Deleted)

Article 302 - Grounds and procedures for reducing a special right suspension period

If a person committed an offence for the first time and due to this offence his/her right to drive a vehicle was suspended for a certain period of time, the agency (official) that imposed the administrative penalty may take into account his/her person and family status and reduce the period of suspension of the right; such reduction shall be allowed after at least one half of the period has elapsed.

Article 303 - Calculating a special right suspension period

1. The special right of a driver of a vehicle shall be deemed to be suspended from the day the suspension order is issued; if the driving right suspension period is increased, the special right of the driver shall be deemed to be suspended from the date indicated in the suspension order.

2. Upon the expiry of a special right suspension period, also upon reduction of the period according to Article 302 of this Code, the deprived documents shall be duly returned to the person subjected to the administrative penalty.

Chapter 29 - Corrective Labour Order Enforcement Proceedings

Article 304 - Enforcing corrective labour orders

A corrective labour order shall be forwarded for enforcement not later than the day following the issue date.

The offender shall perform corrective labour under Article 31 of this Code at a permanent workplace.

Based on a corrective labour order, the offender's salary shall be deducted in favour of the State during the performance period in the amount defined in the order.

Article 305 - Term of corrective labour

The term of corrective labour shall be calculated according to the time during which the offender was working and during which deductions were made from his/her salary.
The number of days worked by the offender shall not be lower than the number of working days in the calendar period of the penalty imposed by the court (judge). If the offender does not work this number of business days and there are no grounds for counting the unworked days towards the term of the penalty, the corrective labour shall continue until the offender works the prescribed number of working days.

The time, during which the offender did not work for a valid reason and was paid salary according to law shall be counted towards the term of the corrective labour. This period shall also include the period of illness, the time off work to care for an ill person, and the period of a maternity leave. The period of illness caused by drunkenness or by an action relating to drunkenness shall not be counted towards the term of the corrective labour.

Article 306 - Duties of the administration of the enterprise, institution or organisation where an offender is performing corrective labour

The administration of the enterprise, institution or organisation where an offender is performing corrective labour shall be obligated to:
perform correct and timely deductions from the offender’s salary in favour of the State and duly transfer the deducted amount in a timely manner;
provide the offender with labour education;
notify the body in charge of the enforcement of this type of penalty of the offender’s evasion of the penalty.

Article 309 - Procedure for serving administrative detention

1. A person sentenced to administrative detention, including a military service person of the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia, shall serve detention at the places designated by the Ministry of Internal Affairs, a military servant of another agency on whom has been imposed an administrative detention shall serve the detention at the places designated by the Ministry of Defence of Georgia. When enforcing an administrative detention order, the offender shall be subjected to personal inspection.

2. The period of administrative arrest shall be counted towards the term of administrative detention.

3. Administrative detention shall be served according to the procedure laid down by the legislation of Georgia.

Article 310 - Use of administrative detainees for labour

Administrative detainees may be used for physical labour.

Local self-government bodies shall organise the use of administrative detainees for labour.

Administrative detainees shall not be paid salary at the permanent workplace during the period of administrative detention.

Chapter 31 - Proceedings on the Enforcement of Material Damages Portion of an Order

Article 311 - Procedure and time frames for enforcing material damages portion of an order

http://www.matsne.gov.ge
The material damages portion of an order issued in an administrative case shall be enforced according to the procedure laid down by the legislation of Georgia, including this Code and the Civil Procedure Code.

The material damages portion of an order issued in an administrative case shall be an enforcement document.

The offender shall pay the material damages not later than 15 days after being served with the order according to Article 268 of this Code; if the order is appealed or objected to, the offender shall pay the material damages within not later than 15 days after receiving a notice of rejection of the appeal or objection, except as provided in paragraph 4 of this article.

Filing of an appeal against an order issued in the administrative cases provided in Articles 208 and 208² of this Code shall not suspend the period of time defined in paragraph 3 of this article for the payment of material damages that commences from the service of the order.

Law of Georgia No 6090 of 26 April 2012 – website, 10.5.2012

Article 312 - Effects of the non-fulfilment of the material damages portion of an order

If the material damages portion of an order is not fulfilled within the time fixed by Article 311(3) of this Code, it shall be sent for the payment of damages according to the enforcement procedure provided by the civil procedure legislation.

Article 312¹ – Administrative proceedings against an unidentified offender

1. If the identity (first name, surname, age, sex, citizenship) of an administrative offender has not been established and the person refuses to identify himself/herself or to give statements, or it is impossible to identify him/her due to a physical defect or other objective circumstances, the person conducting the administrative case shall prepare, with participation of specialists, an administrative offence report describing all possible external features of the person (possible age, sex, height, hair colour, colour of the eyes, other peculiarities of his/her appearance or face), against which the person can be identified (the report shall be appended with a photo). Based on an order imposing an administrative penalty issued by the authorised agency (official) upon the petition of the person in charge of an administrative case, the person may be assigned a conditional name made up a combination of digits and/or alphabetic characters that would allow, based on the facts of the case, the identification of the person in subsequent proceedings in the administrative case. The conditional name may not be degrading or insulting to human honour and dignity.

2. In the case provided in paragraph 1 of this article, all the subsequent actions provided by this Code, including the imposition of an administrative penalty shall be performed without delay, to the full extent. After a report has been prepared against an unidentified offender, the proceedings shall be conducted with the mandatory participation of a defence counsel.

3. After an administrative offence report has been prepared against an unidentified offender according to the procedure laid down by this Code, a comprehensive forensic psychiatric examination may be appointed, based on the specific circumstances of the case, by an order of the relevant district (city) court according to the place of the proceedings. The examination is, to determine, inter alia, the person’s mental condition, blood group, and obtain the fingerprints.

4. An official before whom an administrative case is pending shall be obligated to make sure that all reasonable measures provided by the legislation of Georgia are taken to identify the person indicated in this article (to determine his/her first name and surname, age, citizenship and sanity).

5. If an unidentified person commits the administrative offences defined in Articles 92², 98², 153³, 155, 155¹ and 155² of this Code, the instrument or direct object of the administrative offence, the items or goods, or means of transportation and delivery may be temporarily seized and stored for up to three months as a special measure to ensure collection of the fine imposed as an administrative penalty. If the person is identified during this period, the subsequent proceedings against him/her shall be conducted according to the general procedure.

6. If an unidentified person fails to pay, within three months, the fine imposed as an administrative penalty, the temporarily seized and stored goods (items) shall be confiscated or sold to the extent of the imposed fine according to the procedure laid down by this Code, and the remaining goods shall be returned to the possessor.

7. If an unidentified person is identified at any stage of the administrative proceedings the agency (official) in charge of the proceedings shall, within 72 hours, review and bring in line with these circumstances the summary decisions existing in the case, except where these circumstances place the person in a worse position.

8. The identification of an unidentified person after the three-month period defined in paragraph 4 of this article shall not serve as grounds for claiming the return or compensation of the value of the goods (items) confiscated or sold under the same paragraph.

Chapter 32 - Transitional and Final Provisions

http://www.matsne.gov.ge
