Article 2 – Regulation of issues related to the status of high mountainous settlements

1. A high mountainous settlement is a settlement that is located in a mountainous region at approximately 1 500 metres or higher according to hypsometric analyses. The Government of Georgia is entitled to take into consideration different criteria (steepness of mountain slope, condition of infrastructure, climate condition and natural environment, scarcity and deficiency of agricultural lands, and demographic profile, including aggravated migration processes) and to grant the status of high mountainous settlement to a settlement located at not less than 800 metres in a mountainous region. In exceptional cases, taking into consideration the criteria determined by this paragraph, the status of high mountainous settlement may be granted to a settlement located below 800 metres in a mountainous region.

1¹. The status of high mountainous settlement shall be granted to a settlement, which is located near the occupied territories of Georgia, adjacent to the demarcation line, at not less than 800 metres above the sea level.

1². If 80 per cent or more of the municipality settlements have been granted the status of high mountainous settlement, the status of high mountainous settlement shall be also granted to other settlements of the municipality that are located at not less than 800 metres above the sea level.

1³. The administrative centre of a municipality determined by paragraph 1² of this article shall be granted the status of high mountainous settlement under the same paragraph if it is located at 1000 metres or higher hypsometric altitude.

2. Regardless of their altitudes, the status of high mountainous settlement shall be granted to settlements located within the following historic and geographic areas: Khevi, Mtiuleti, Pankisi Gorge, mountainous Ajara, Gudamakari Valley, Pshav-Khevsureti, Tusheti, Upper Svaneti, Lower Svaneti, Lechkhumi and Racha.

3. A settlement shall be granted the status of high mountainous settlement by being included in the list of the high mountainous settlements. The Government of Georgia, based on the recommendation of the Council, shall approve the list of high mountainous settlements by an ordinance.

4. The Ministry of Regional Development and Infrastructure of Georgia, relevant municipalities, relevant state representative, and the Government of the Autonomous Republic of Ajara shall apply with the relevant petition to the Council to discuss the issue of placing settlements on the list of high mountainous settlements and on removing settlements from the list of high mountainous settlements.

5. This Law shall apply to high mountainous settlements located in the occupied territories of Georgia after the complete restoration of the jurisdiction of Georgia in the relevant territory.

6. If the issue of attributing the status of high mountainous settlement to the historic and geographic areas of Georgia provided for by paragraph 2 of this Article cannot be resolved, the Government of Georgia shall decide upon the issue based on the recommendation of the Council.

Article 3 – Granting, terminating, suspending, and restoring the status of permanent resident of a high mountainous settlement

1. The mayor of the relevant municipality shall make a decision on the issue of granting, terminating, suspending, and restoring the status of permanent resident of a high mountainous settlement.

2. The power provided for by paragraph 1 of this Article is a power delegated to the municipality by the state.

3. The amount of financial resources necessary for the municipality to exercise the delegated powers provided for by paragraph 1 of this Article shall be determined by the law on the State budget of Georgia for the relevant year.

4. The Ministry of Regional Development and Infrastructure of Georgia shall implement field supervision on the implementation of the delegated powers provided for by paragraph 1 of this Article according to the Organic Law of Georgia the Local Self-Government Code.

5. A natural person shall be granted the status of permanent resident of a high mountainous settlement if he/she meets the following criteria:

a) he/she must be a citizen of Georgia;

b) he/she must be registered in a high mountainous settlement;

c) he/she must actually live in a high mountainous settlement for an aggregate 9 months or more than 9 months during each calendar year. If a high mountainous settlement is located at 2000 metres or higher above the sea level, the period of actually living in a high mountainous settlement, as provided for by this paragraph, shall be an aggregate 6 months or more than 6 months during each calendar year.

6. The status of permanent resident of high mountainous settlement shall be terminated if the permanent resident of a high mountainous settlement:

a) has died;

b) has changed the address of registration (except in the case of registration in another high mountainous settlement);

c) has left the high mountainous settlement, resulting in noncompliance with the provisions of paragraph 5(c) of this Article, except in the cases provided for by paragraphs 7 and 8 of this Article;

d) no longer has citizenship of Georgia.

7. A natural person shall maintain the status of permanent resident of a high mountainous settlement, if he/she has left the high mountainous settlement for treatment, or national military service of conscripts for a certain period, or if he/she was sentenced to imprisonment as a means of a restraining measure according to the legislation of Georgia.

8. A natural person's status of permanent resident of a high mountainous settlement shall be suspended if:

a) the court has sentenced him/her to imprisonment as a means of punishment;

b) he/she has left the high mountainous settlement in order to receive higher or vocational education and no longer complies with the provisions of paragraph 5(c) of this Article.

9. In the case provided for by paragraph 8(a) of this Article, a natural person's status of permanent resident of a high mountainous settlement shall be suspended from the day of entry into force of the judgment of conviction of the court of last instance against him/her, or from the day of the expiration of the term of appeal of the court judgment of conviction to a court of higher instance. A natural person's status of permanent resident of a high mountainous settlement shall be restored if the natural person has actually lived in a high mountainous settlement during a period of one month after being released from a detention facility.

10. In the case provided for by paragraph 8(b) of this Article, the issues related to the suspension of the status of permanent resident of a high mountainous settlement of a natural person shall be determined by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia. The status of permanent resident of a high mountainous settlement of a natural person shall be restored if the natural person has actually lived in a high mountainous settlement during a period of one month after completion or termination of studies.

11. After the issuance of the act provided for by paragraph 1 of this Article, the mayor of the municipality is obliged, during the period of one week after making a decision, to provide the information on granting, terminating, suspending, or restoring the status of permanent resident of a high mountainous settlement to the Public Service Development Agency, a legal entity of public law under the governance of the Ministry of Justice of Georgia.

12. The information provided for by paragraph 11 of this Article on permanent residents of high mountainous settlements shall be recorded in the register of permanent residents of high mountainous settlements, in accordance with the rules established by the Minister of Justice of Georgia. The Minister of Justice of Georgia shall establish the rules for the registration procedure of permanent residents of high mountainous settlements.

13. The administrative bodies are obliged to provide to the mayor of a relevant municipality the information verifying the factual conditions determined by this Article.

14. The granting, termination, suspension, or restoration of the status of permanent resident of a high mountainous settlement, including the procedure for establishing the actual residence of a natural person in a high mountainous settlement and other issues related to the said procedure, and which require additional regulation, shall be determined by the procedure for granting, terminating, suspending, or restoring the status of permanent resident of a high mountainous settlement, which shall be approved by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia.
