Article 10 – Insured

1. An insured shall be a person covered by insurance. A policyholder may also be an insured, unless otherwise defined in the insurance contract.

2. The legislation on compulsory insurance may obligate a policyholder to insure a third person. In the case of voluntary insurance, a policyholder may specify a third person as an insured in the insurance contract; in this case, the object of insurance shall be the insured person and the personal interests related to him/her (personal insurance), or property of the insured person and interests related to it (property insurance).

3. When insuring property, an insured who is not a policyholder, must have an interest in maintaining that property.

4. In the case of compulsory insurance, obtaining the consent of a third person for entering into a contract, in which he/she it will be specified as the insured, shall not be necessary. In the case of voluntary insurance, refusal of a third person to have such a contract entered into shall make entering into it impossible or, if such a contract has already been entered into, shall cause its modification or termination.

5. When insuring property, a policyholder shall be obligated to notify a third person about his/her/its intention to insure the third person's property or related interests, accurately defining the object of insurance.

6. If a policyholder is obligated to insure a third person, the third person may request that the policyholder report on the performance of his/her/its obligations, and in the cases defined in the legislation - a document evidencing insurance. If a policyholder has not performed or improperly performed his/her/its obligation concerning the insurance of a third person, the third person shall be entitled to exercise the rights defined in Article 6(1) and (2) of this Law.

7. The rights of insured minor citizens shall be realised according to procedures established by legislation.

8. Entering into a contract in favour of the insured shall not release the policyholder from fulfilling the obligations defined in the contract.

9. A third person shall be insured at the expense of the policyholder. The obligations of an insured who is not a policyholder, as well as obligations of a policyholder, arising upon occurrence of the insured event, shall be determined by an insurance contract. The policyholder shall be obligated to notify the insured about the obligations defined in the insurance contract.

10. If an insured refuses to receive the insurance policy proceeds to which he/she/it is entitled as per the insurance contract, the right to receive the proceeds shall be transferred to the policyholder.

11. In the case of the death of an insured, if he/she was not the policyholder, the insurance contract shall be terminated, unless the legislation or the contract provides for the replacement of the insured.

12. If the death of the insured is the insured event considered in the insurance contract, the contract shall be terminated after its performance.

13. In the case of the death of an insured, if he/she was not the policyholder, and the contract of property insurance has been concluded in favour of him/her, the rights and obligations of the insured for the property that is an object of insurance, shall, with the consent of the policyholder, be transferred to the heir of the deceased insured, unless otherwise defined in the legislation or in the contract.

14. If a policyholder does not agree to have the insured replaced, or if heirs do not give their consent to undertake the rights and obligations of the deceased insured, the contract shall be terminated.

Article 11 - Beneficiary

1. A beneficiary shall be a natural or legal person that receives insurance policy proceeds according to an insurance contract or the legislation on insurance.

2. A beneficiary may be designated in the case of both personal and property insurance.
3. When administering compulsory insurance, the beneficiary shall be designated according to the legislation regulating the given type of insurance. When administering voluntary insurance, the beneficiary shall be designated by the policyholder.
4. The insured shall be the beneficiary, unless otherwise defined in the legislation on compulsory insurance or the insurance contract.
5. The beneficiary shall be the insured, unless the beneficiary has been designated by the contract.
6. A contract of property insurance may be entered into in favour of the beneficiary without indicating the name or title of the beneficiary. When entering into such a contract, a policyholder shall be given an insurance certificate (a policy, certificate, etc.); in this case, the beneficiary shall be the person who presents the aforementioned document to the insurer.
7. When a policyholder is not the insured, in the case of death of the latter or his/her waiver of his/her rights, his/her rights shall be transferred to the policyholder. This shall entail the results defined in Article 10(11) of this Law.
8. Entering into a contract in favour of the beneficiary shall not release the policyholder from fulfilling the obligations defined in the contract.

Article 12 - Insurance agent and insurance broker

1. An insurer may administer insurance activity through an insurance agent or an insurance broker.
2. An insurance agent shall be a natural or legal person that acts under instructions and in the name of the insurer, within the powers granted by the insurer. An insurance payment received by an insurance agent shall be considered to be an insurance payment received by the insurer.
3. An insurance broker shall be a natural or legal person that is established in accordance with the legislation of Georgia, is registered with the Service and independently carries out brokerage activity in the field of insurance, as a type of its entrepreneurial activity. An insurance broker shall be obligated, before starting his/her/its activity, to apply to the Service and complete registration.
4. The relations of an insurance broker with an insurer and a policyholder shall be determined by a contract concluded between them.
5. It shall be prohibited for an insurer, an insurance agent or an insurance broker to enter into an insurance contract in the name of a foreign insurance organisation, except for a civil liability insurance contract of a car owner, to be used only outside Georgia.
6. When entering into a contract, an insurance broker and an insurance agent shall be obligated to notify the insurer about any circumstances known to them and important for the conditions determined by the insurance contract.

Article 21¹ - Violations and sanctions

1. The Service may apply sanctions against an insurer and/or an administrator if the insurer or the administrator:
 - a) violated one of the provisions of this Law or any norm, instruction, procedure, requirement, or written instruction of the Service;
 - b) violated time limits for submitting reports or submitted an incorrect report and any other inaccurate information;
 - c) violated requirements of the Law of Georgia on Facilitating the Prevention of Money Laundering.
2. If violations referred to in paragraph 1 of this article are discovered, the Service may apply the following sanctions in the given order, or apply them out of order due to the seriousness of the potential risk:
 - a) send a written warning;
 - b) introduce special measures or issue instructions (directives) requiring the insurer to stop and prevent any further violations, and to measures to eliminate the violations in a given period of time;
 - c) impose pecuniary penalties according to the procedures and in the amounts defined by the Service;
 - d) suspend the signing authority of an insurer's administrator, and request the Supervisory Board/General Meeting of the insurer to suspend or remove him/her from office;
 - e) suspend or restrict the distribution of profits, issuance of dividends and material incentives, and assumption of new obligations;
 - f) in exceptional cases, when interests of a policyholder and those of an insured are at risk, suspend their right to carry out specific operations, impose a compulsory administration regime;
 - g) cancel an insurance incense.

3. The sanctions imposed by this article shall correspond to the seriousness of the violation and the potential hazard.

4. The amount of the pecuniary penalty imposed under this article shall be paid to the State Budget of Georgia.

5. The sanction imposed on an insurer and/or an administrator by an administrative legal act shall be referred for enforcement on the basis of a writ of execution issued according to the administrative legal act entered into force according to the procedure established by the Law of Georgia on Enforcement Proceedings.

Article 22 – Issuing insurance licenses

1. Insurance licenses shall be issued by the Service, according to the Law of Georgia on Licenses and Permits.
2. Insurance licenses may be issued only to legal persons the organisational-legal form of which is a joint stock company.
3. An insurance license shall be issued only for the following activities:
 - a) life insurance
 - b) insurance (non-life)
 - c) reinsurance.
4. If an insurer intends to carry out the activity referred to in Article 3(c) and has already obtained a license for any other type of insurance, it may carry out the activity referred to in Article 3(c) for that specific type of insurance for the performance of which it has already obtained the right by the relevant license, on the basis of an appropriate license. In that case, an additional license is not required. An insurer shall be obligated to notify the Service about this fact in writing, within 10 working days after the commencement of reinsurance activity.
5. In addition to the licensing conditions set out in the Law of Georgia on Licenses and Permits, a license seeker shall be obligated to meet the following conditions:
 - a) present articles of association (including a Charter);
 - b) present documents verifying state/tax registration;
 - c) present an appropriate document from a banking institution(s) licensed in Georgia certifying that the founders fully paid up in cash the minimum capital determined by the Service;
 - d) present an appropriate document from a banking institution(s) licensed in Georgia confirming the fact that the minimum funds required by the Service have been credited to the bank account(s);

e) present identification data of both direct and beneficial owners of the insurer's significant share.

f) present documents for every administrator and for every holder of a significant share, confirming that those persons:

f.a) (deleted - 20.3.2015, No 3389);

f.b) (deleted - 20.12.2011, No 5528);

f.c) have not been convicted of grave or especially grave crimes, terrorism financing and/or legalising illicit income, or any other economic crime;

f.d) are not concurrently acting as administrators of an insurer, except where they hold the office of administrator in the insurance organisation/reinsurance company that is controlled by the given insurance organisation/reinsurance company, and/or in the insurance organisation/reinsurance company that controls the given insurance organisation/reinsurance company;

f.e) have appropriate education and/or experience;

f.f) has not been recognised by the court as a beneficiary of support and that the court decision does not provide otherwise;

g) an insurer shall be obligated to comply with the limits and norms defined by the Service at every stage of its insurance activity;

h) an insurer shall be obligated to use an insurance license within six months after it is granted.

6. A license seeker (applicant) that intends to carry out non-state pension insurance and provisions shall be obligated to additionally present and register non-state pension scheme procedures, according to the Law of Georgia on Non-state Pension Provision and Insurance.

7. A license seeker shall be obligated to present documents specified in paragraph 5 of this article in original or duly certified copies.

8. A branch (representative office) [of an insurance organisation] specified in Article 2(c.b) of this Law may carry out the licensable activity defined in paragraph 3 of this article on the basis of the license of its founder insurance organisation in such a way that it is not obligated to obtain an appropriate license. A license held by a founder insurance organisation shall have the same legal status as a license issued on the basis of the legislation of Georgia, and no one shall have the right to request from the branch (representative office) to obtain an appropriate license.

9. A branch (representative office) specified in Article 2(c.b) of this Law, 10 days prior to the commencement of the activity referred to in paragraph 3 of this article, shall submit to the Service the documents obtained from the relevant supervisory body confirming that the founder insurance organisation is authorised to carry out appropriate insurance activity in the country of registration and to open a branch (representative office) in Georgia.

10. An insurance license shall be issued for an indefinite term.

11. An insurance license shall be issued to a specific insurer and the license may not be transferred to another legal person.

12. A license shall not be required for the activities of insurance agents and insurance brokers, or for activities related to assessment of insurance risk, extent of losses and certainty of an event, or for the activities related to advisory and research services in the area of insurance.

13. The right to carry out insurance activity in the territory of Georgia shall be enjoyed only by a legal person licensed by the Service or by the branch (representative office) referred to in Article 2(c.b) of this Law.

14. An insurer (license seeker) shall be responsible for the accuracy of documents submitted to obtain a license.

15. If the documents submitted to obtain a license are later modified, the insurer shall be obligated to inform the Service in writing of the changes and submit the relevant documents within seven working days after the modifications are made.

16. The form of an insurance license shall be determined by the Service.

The amount and payment procedures for a license fee shall be defined by the legislation of Georgia.

Article 25 - Refusal to issue a license

1. A license shall not be issued if:

- a) documents submitted to obtain a license do not meet the requirements of Article 22 of this Law;
- b) a license seeker is a legal person that has no right to carry out insurance activity in the territory of Georgia according to this Law;
- c) there is a court decision prohibiting the administrator of an insurance organisation to carry out insurance activity;
- d) a license seeker's license in the same licensable area has been cancelled and the reasons for cancellation are not yet eliminated;
- e) an insurer's administrators and holders of a significant share do not satisfy the conditions defined in Article 22(5)(f) of this Law.

2. In the case of refusal to issue a license, the applicant shall be given a substantiated written response setting out the reasons for refusal.

3. If the request for a license is denied, the applicant may appeal the decision.

Article 27¹ - Cancellation of an insurance license

1. An insurance license may be cancelled only by decision of the Service:

- a) at the request of an insurance organisation, in cases where a license holder applies to the Service in writing for cancellation of the license;
- b) if economic limits and norms defined by the Service are repeatedly violated;

- c) if an insurer does not use the license within six months after it entered into force;
 - d) if an insurer carried or carries out such insurance activities that are hazardous or harmful to its financial situation, and that may cause significant damage to the policyholders/insureds;
 - e) if an insurer is insolvent.
2. A branch (representative office) referred to in Article 2(c.b) of this Law, shall terminate its activity, if:
- a) the legislation of Georgia on insurance is grossly and repeatedly violated;
 - b) its founder insurance organisation made such decision; the Service shall be notified of the decision in the shortest time after the decision is made;
 - c) its founder insurance organisation or reinsurance company is deprived of the right to carry out insurance activity in the country of registration; the branch (representative office) shall be obligated to notify the Service about this fact;
 - d) insolvency (bankruptcy) proceedings are initiated against its founder insurance organisation or reinsurance company, or there is another reason for the commencement of its liquidation; the branch (representative office) shall be obligated to immediately notify the Service about it;
3. Once the Service makes a decision on cancellation of an insurance license or on termination of the activity of the branch (representative office) referred to in Article 2(c.b) of this Law, the insurer may no longer carry out the insurance activity permitted by the relevant license, except for the obligations it had undertaken earlier under insurance contracts, until such contracts expire.
4. An insurer shall return the insurance license to the Service within three days after the decision on the cancellation of the license enters into force.
5. From the moment of cancellation of an insurance license, the process of liquidation of the insurer shall begin according to this Law, other laws and the procedures established by the Service.

Article 28 - Consequences of reorganisation of an insurance organisation and of modifications made to its Charter

- 1. If a legal person holding an insurance license undergoes a merger, takeover or separation, its right to the license shall be transferred to its legal successor. If required, the legal successor shall be granted a new license, instead of the old one.
- 2. An application for a replacement license shall be accompanied by:
 - a) a decision on reorganisation of the legal person;
 - b) a copy of the state registration document of the insurer's legal successor.
- 3. If the articles of association of a legal person are modified in such a way that re-registration of the legal person is not required, the copies of those documents shall be sent to the Service.
- 4. If an insurer changes its company name, location or articles of association, its shall be obligated to submit a written notification and appropriate documents to the Service within seven working days after the change is made.
- 5. If an insurer intends to alienate a significant share, changes its organisational-legal form, undergoes reorganisation or founds a branch (representative office), it shall be obligated to submit a written notification and appropriate documents to the Service in advance (information about the person who is intending to purchase the share, as well as information on the conditions defined in Article 5(f) of this Law, also reasons and conditions for changing its organisational-legal form, or for its merger or separation). [In the case of refusal] the Service shall send a substantiated refusal to the insurer within 10 days after receiving a written request. The consent shall be considered to be given if the insurer does not receive a substantiated refusal within 10 days.

5¹. If an administrator is changed, an insurer shall be obligated to submit to the Service the documents referred to in Article 22(5)(f) of this Law.

6. A transaction on purchasing a significant share shall be void if appropriate information is not submitted to the Service, or if the transaction is executed despite a substantiated refusal received from the Service

Article 28¹ - Founding a branch (representative office), or establishing or purchasing a subsidiary abroad by an insurer

1. In order to carry out the activity determined in the legislation of Georgia for persons conducting monitoring under the Law of Georgia on Facilitating the Prevention of Money laundering, an insurer shall submit to the Service the following documents within 14 days after founding a branch or establishing or purchasing a subsidiary:

- a) a decision of the governing body of the insurer on founding a branch or establishing or purchasing a subsidiary;
- b) a statement of the governing body of the insurer stating that for the purpose of fulfilling the recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force on Money Laundering (FATF), the branch or subsidiary concerned developed a programme for combating money laundering and terrorism financing.

2. If the laws and subordinate normative acts of a foreign country where a branch or subsidiary is located do not require the fulfilment of the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) recommendations, or if the country does not combat money laundering and terrorism financing, and the recommendations of the Financial Action Task Force are not followed at all or are followed inadequately:

a) the governing body of the insurer shall undertake a written obligation that the branch or subsidiary of the insurer will take measures for combating money laundering and terrorism financing according to the requirements existing in Georgia and the recommendations of Financial Action Task Force;

b) the insurer shall notify the Service if its branch or subsidiary cannot carry out measures related to combating money laundering and terrorism financing determined by the legislation of Georgia, because it is prohibited or restricted by the legislation of the foreign country where the branch or subsidiary is located.

Article 29 - Protection of commercial, confidential and insurance secrets of an insurer by employees of the Service

1. Information about insurance operations and transactions (including attempted transactions) carried out by a policyholder/insured/beneficiary may be released only to the policyholder/insured/beneficiary concerned and to its representative, also to the Service, within the scope of its authority, and in the cases defined by the legislation of Georgia, to the Financial Monitoring Service of Georgia.

2. Employees of the Service may not disclose in any form the commercial secrets of an insurer, or the data on a policyholder/insured/beneficiary that are subject to insurance secrecy and that become known to them in the course of their official duties. Furthermore, it does not matter whether or not the person currently holds the above position.

3. If an employee of the Service violates the requirements of this article, he/she shall be held liable under the legislation of Georgia.

4. The procedure for deeming certain information as confidential, and the procedure for releasing such information or for approving the list of confidential information shall be determined by the Head of the Service.

Law of Georgia No 1679 of 24 September 2009 - LGH I, No 29, 12.10.2009, Art. 162

Article 33¹ - Insurers under compulsory administration

1. If there is a risk of violation of the norms defined by the Service, and/or a risk of deterioration of the financial situation and/or a risk of non-fulfilment of insurance obligations, the Service shall be authorised to impose compulsory administration on an insurer; the decision shall be immediately published in the Legislative Herald of Georgia.
2. A decision to impose compulsory administration on an insurer shall include information on the reasons for imposing the compulsory administration, as well as information on the temporary administrator, the duration of the compulsory administration process and on the possible measures to be taken.
3. If a decision to impose compulsory administration on an insurer is appealed to a court, it shall not cause suspension of the compulsory administration process.
4. A temporary administrator of an insurer shall begin the performance of his/her duties from the date indicated in a decision on the imposition of compulsory administration.
5. From the date of making a decision on the imposition of compulsory administration, it shall be prohibited to carry out any action in the name or at the expense of the insurer without a written consent of the temporary administrator.
6. The full powers of all governing bodies of an insurer shall be transferred to the temporary administrator of the insurer; the administrator shall exercise the powers in agreement with the Service, according to the established procedures.
7. The temporary administrator of an insurer shall be obligated to submit a request, in the shortest time possible, for making necessary modifications to the list of the insurer's officials, submitted to the Service.
8. The temporary administrator of an insurer shall be obligated to carry out activities in good faith, in the interests of policyholders/insured persons/beneficiaries and of the insurer.
9. The temporary administrator of an insurer assigned by the Service shall satisfy the eligibility criteria established for the position of an insurer's administrator.
10. A temporary administrator of an insurer shall be obligated to take necessary measures for improving the financial situation of the insurer, including sale of the insurer, payment of funds or suspension of their payment.
11. A temporary administrator of an insurer shall be authorised to: reorganise the insurer that is subjected to compulsory administration, alienate its assets and liabilities (including insurance portfolio) or part of them, to another legal person. A temporary administrator shall be authorised to appoint and dismiss from office the employees of the insurer.

Article 33² - Cancellation of compulsory administration

1. A compulsory administration shall be cancelled:
 - a) after its period of validity expires;
 - b) by a well-grounded decision of the Service;
 - c) if an insurer's insurance license is cancelled.
2. A decision to cancel compulsory administration shall be immediately published in the Legislative Herald of Georgia.

Article 33³ - Liquidation of insurers

1. The cancellation of an insurance license shall cause the liquidation of the insurer. The functions of a liquidator shall be performed by a person appointed by the Service; the person shall satisfy the eligibility criteria defined for an administrator of an insurer. A person associated with this insurer may not be assigned as a liquidator. A compulsory enforcement shall be suspended as soon as liquidation proceedings commence.
2. Within three months after appointment, the liquidator shall be obligated to draw up a list of assets and liabilities, and deliver a copy to the Service for publication. A liquidator shall report to the Service according to the procedures established by the Service.
3. A liquidator may sell assets of an insurer at public auction or in any other convenient way, or transfer insurance policy claims to another insurer, or transfer claims against the insurer's assets to another legal person or organise the transfer of liabilities.
4. From the day of appointment, a liquidator may:
 - a) terminate the employment contracts of the insurer's employees;
 - b) terminate a service contract to which the insurer was a party;
 - c) terminate any obligation of the insurer as lessee of immovable property, if the lessor (who must be given a 60-day notice about the insurer's intention to use the right to cancel the lease agreement) does not have a claim on the rental fee, apart from the amount accrued as of the day of cancelling the agreement, and does not claim damages for the cancellation;
 - d) transfer all or part of the assets and liabilities of the insurer (including its insurance portfolio) to another legal person (including another insurer).
5. A temporary administrator, liquidator and bankruptcy manager of an insurer may file a claim with the court and contest an action or transaction performed by an administrator of an insurer 12 months earlier before the appointment of the temporary administrator, liquidator or bankruptcy manager, and request that the action or transaction be declared void, if as a result of the action or transaction the persons related to the insurer received material benefit at the expense of the insurer or gained some kind of advantage or any other preference or privilege that caused damage to the insurer (its creditors).
6. A liquidator shall publish a decision to liquidate an insurer in the Legislative Herald of Georgia and on the official website of the Service within 15 days after the appointment; the decision shall be republished one month after its first publication.
7. In the case of an insurer's liquidation, claims shall be satisfied on the basis of written applications of creditors, after 20 days from the submission of a list of assets and liabilities to the Service by the liquidator.
8. The unclaimed money and property of an insurer shall be considered as unclaimed assets and shall be transferred into possession of the Service for the purpose of identifying their owners.
9. A liquidator shall be obligated to act in good faith, in the interests of policyholders/insured persons/beneficiaries and other creditors.
10. In the course of liquidation and bankruptcy proceedings the assets permitted for covering reserves may be used only after the liabilities arising out of insurance contracts are paid off.

Article 33⁴ - Bankruptcy proceedings of insurers

1. If during the preparation of a list of assets and liabilities on the basis of Article 33³(2) of this Law, it is determined that the insurer is insolvent, the liquidator of the insurer shall be obligated to notify the Service; based on this notice the Service shall make a decision to terminate the liquidation process against the insurer and to initiate bankruptcy proceedings against it.
2. If it is determined that an insurer is insolvent, the Service may initiate bankruptcy proceedings against the insurer, without launching liquidation proceedings. In that case, a bankruptcy manager shall, first of all, exercise the powers and fulfil the obligations determined for a liquidator under Article 33³ of this Law.
3. As soon as bankruptcy proceedings against an insurer are initiated, compulsory enforcement shall be suspended.
4. By decision of the Service a bankruptcy manager shall be appointed and he/she shall satisfy the eligibility criteria defined for an insurer's administrator.
5. A bankruptcy manager shall be obligated to:
 - a) publish a statement on initiating bankruptcy proceedings against the insurer in the Legislative Herald of Georgia and on the official website of the Service, within 14 days after making the decision; the decision shall be republished one month after its first publication. The same statement shall define the liability of the insurer to the creditors. Within one month from the second publication of the statement the creditors of the insurer shall submit to the bankruptcy manager a substantiated written request indicating the amount and reasons for their claims;

b) notify appropriate tax authorities about initiating bankruptcy proceedings against the insurer.

6. A bankruptcy manager may sell assets of the insurer at public auction or in any other convenient way, according to procedures established by the Service, or transfer the claim on insurance policies to another insurer, or transfer the claim on the assets of the insurer to another legal person or organise the transfer of liabilities.

7. From the day of appointment, a bankruptcy manager may:

a) terminate employment contracts of the insurer's employees;

b) terminate a service contract to which the insurer was a party;

c) transfer all or part of the assets and liabilities of the insurer (including insurance portfolio) to another legal person.

d) satisfy the claims of the insurer's creditors in an established order of priority, by one-off payment or payment in instalments.

8. The remuneration of a bankruptcy manager shall be commensurate with the obligations fulfilled by him/her. The remuneration of a bankruptcy manager shall be determined by the Service. The Service may cover by its own funds all expenses and remunerations related to the appointment of a bankruptcy manager and fulfilment of his/her obligations.

9. During bankruptcy proceedings against an insurer, claims shall be satisfied in the following order of priority:

a) first order of priority - all expenses and remunerations related to the appointment of a bankruptcy manager and fulfilment of his/her obligations, as well as obligations that the insurer incurred after the cancellation of the insurance license;

b) second order of priority - secured creditors, except for claims secured by tax lien;

c) third order of priority - claims of the creditors that are based on life and non-state pension insurance. The amount of life insurance liabilities for cumulative and refundable types of life insurance shall be the amount of the life insurance reserve;

d) fourth order of priority - claims of creditors that are based on accident insurance contracts;

e) fifth order of priority - claims of all other creditors arising out of all other insurance contracts;

f) sixth order of priority - tax arrears, including claims secured by tax lien;

g) seventh order of priority - other claims against the insurer and late claims submitted by creditors.

10. If the existing money is not sufficient to fully cover the claims referred to in paragraph 9 of this article, then each matured claim of the respective order of priority shall be satisfied in proportion to the extent of the claim of each creditor falling within the relevant order of priority, except for claims determined in paragraph 9(a) of this article, which must be paid in full.

11. Claims of each subsequent order of priority shall be satisfied after the claims of previous order of priority are satisfied.
