Chapter III – Incompatibility of Duties

Article 13

1. The issues of incompatibility of duties are regulated by the Constitution of Georgia, organic law, this Law and other normative acts.

1¹. This article shall apply to a Member of the Parliament of Georgia unless otherwise determined by the Rules of Procedure of the Parliament of Georgia.

2. A public servant, except for the President of Georgia, a Member of the Parliament of Georgia and a member of the Government of Georgia, may not perform any kind of paid work (except for academic, pedagogical, and creative activities or activities in the reserve of the defence forces of Georgia, or activities performed by a person employed within the system of the Ministry of Defence of Georgia in the field of medicine or information technology, or in the field of aviation in a state enterprise or in an enterprise set up with participatory interest of the state, and activities performed for the achievement of the objectives of international partnership and/or peace operations, in his/her current post held at an international organisation). A public servant may not hold another position at any public institution (except for the reserve of the defence forces of Georgia) or legal entity under private law, or be a member of a representative body of any level, or perform any kind of paid work or hold a position in a body or institution abroad. A public servant may concurrently perform paid work only within the system of the same public institution.

2¹. The President of Georgia may not hold any other office, and receive a salary or other permanent remuneration for any other activity. The President of Georgia shall not be a member of a political party.

2². A member of the Government of Georgia may not hold any other office except in a (political) party, and receive remuneration for any other activity, except for academic and pedagogical activities.

3. A public servant may not receive income from an organisation that is under his/her official supervision.

4. A public servant may not be assigned to supervise the organisation, in the supervising body of which his/her family member is employed.

5. A public servant may not hold a position in any enterprise.
6. A public servant shall, for the term of his/her office, under a trust agreement, transfer to other persons for management a capital share (block of stocks) of an enterprise of the business entity owned by him/her, as determined by the legislation of Georgia.
7. A public servant may not be a permanent head of a business entity, or a member of a controlling, a supervisory or an auditing body.
8. Public servants may not carry out entrepreneurial activities. Public servants may only hold stocks or a share in an enterprise.
9. A public servant may not be a representative or a proxy of any natural or legal person, or represent or defend him/her/it in criminal law, civil law or administrative law cases before or against any public institution, except when he/she is a guardian, care giver or supporter of this natural person.
10. A dismissed public servant may not, within one year after dismissal, start working in the public institution or carry out activities in the enterprise which has been under his systematic official supervision during the past three years. Within this period, he/she also may not receive income from such public institution or enterprise.
11. An official or his/her family member may not hold a position or perform any kind of work in an enterprise registered in Georgia, the control of entrepreneurial activities of which falls within the powers of this official or his/her office.
12. An official or his/her family member may not hold stocks or a capital share in an enterprise, the control of activities of which falls within the powers of this official or his/her office.
13. An official's close relative may not be appointed as an officer on the basis of an agreement under public law or an employment agreement to a position that is under official supervision of that official (except when appointed through a competition).
14. An official or his/her family member shall resign from an incompatible position or terminate incompatible activities within 10 days after the appointment of this official, unless otherwise provided for by the Constitution of Georgia or by law.
15. An official shall submit documents certifying the elimination of his/her incompatibility or his/her family member to the superior official (body), under whose immediate subordination he/she is, and to the human resources management unit.
16. Unless otherwise provided for by the Constitution of Georgia and the organic law, an official shall be dismissed if:
 - a) he/she or a member of his/her family violates the incompatibility provisions under this Law;
 - b) it is confirmed by a court decision that he/she owns illegal and/or unsubstantiated property.
17. The restrictions under this article shall not apply to the members of the Sakrebulo (assembly), who are not officials of the Sakrebulo.

Article 13²

1. A public servant shall carry out his/her activities on the basis of the legislation of Georgia and according to the general rules of conduct for public servants.
2. A public servant shall comply with the requirements relating to him/her and the position occupied by him/her. A public servant shall perform official duties impartially and in good faith.
3. A public servant shall act by observing the principle of collegiality, taking into account his/her official duties, and shall observe the general rules of conduct for public servants determined by this Law in relations with civil society, especially when interacting with citizens who use his/her services.
4. A public servant shall observe the principle of economic efficiency and effectiveness when performing official duties. A public servant shall not misuse official resources to prevent their embezzlement.
5. If a public servant has been detained or arrested or if criminal prosecution is being conducted against him/her, he/she shall inform the head of the respective public institution of this fact.
6. A public servant shall avoid any action that will prejudice his/her reputation and the reputation of the respective public institution or state service/public service.
7. A public servant shall use official powers and the certificates, symbols and other identification means evidencing his/her official authority in good faith, for official purposes only and shall not use them for gaining any privilege.
8. A public servant shall make decisions based on the principles of transparency and legality. A decree and/or an order that contradicts the legislation or the state interests of Georgia may not be issued.

1. The head of a public institution shall ensure access to public information and the proper functioning of the mechanism of smooth release of public information.
2. A public servant may not intentionally disseminate doubtful, unverified and/or false information.
3. A public servant shall release public information as provided for by the legislation of Georgia and in compliance with the norms and requirements of a public institution where he/she works.
4. If a public servant is authorised to restrict public availability of certain information, he/she shall strictly comply with the criteria determined by the legislation of Georgia. If necessary, the public servant shall immediately raise the issue of restricting public availability of information as determined by law.
5. A public servant shall take necessary measures to ensure confidentiality of information containing state secrets or relating to the reputation of public service, or obtained in the line of official duty, or containing personal data and other information (subject to Article 50(4) of the Criminal Procedure Code of Georgia). This requirement shall be applicable even after dismissal of the public servant.

Article 13⁴

1. A public servant may not offer or receive any benefit related to the position that he/she holds in state service and/or public service, except as provided for by the legislation of Georgia.
2. A public servant shall:
 - a) pay attention to any existing or possible conflict of interest;
 - b) take measures to prevent any conflict of interest;
 - c) declare any conflict of interest before being appointed or elected to the respective position or after being appointed or elected as soon as he/she becomes aware of that fact.
3. Within one month after being appointed or elected and later, before 1 February of each following calendar year, a public servant shall declare publicly about persons related to him/her employed at the same public institution where the public servant works. A written statement of the public servant in this regard, containing identification data of the related person and the information indicating the relationship between them, shall be submitted to and registered with the human resources management unit of the respective public institution.
4. For the purposes of this chapter, ‘a person related to a public servant’ includes persons under Article 4 of this Law and any other persons with whom the public servant maintains a common household, i.e. such special relationship that may affect conditions or economic outcomes of their activities.

Chapter IV – Declaring and Publishing Economic Interests

1. A person shall submit an official's asset declaration to the Anti-Corruption Bureau within two months after his/her appointment. The Government of Georgia shall determine the procedure for the submission of official's asset declarations.
2. During his/her term of office, an official shall annually complete and submit an official's asset declaration within the respective month of completion of the previous declaration.
3. An official shall, within two months after dismissal, if he/she failed to submit the declaration within the calendar year of his/her dismissal, and within the same, respective month of completing the previous declaration in the year following the dismissal, unless he/she is appointed to another position, complete and submit an official's asset declaration.
- 3¹. If the two-month period under paragraph 3 of this article moves over to the following calendar year, an official shall complete and submit an official's asset declaration not later than 31 December of the calendar year of his/her dismissal.
4. A person, who has been assigned within the system of the same public institution to temporarily perform the duties of an absent official for a specific period of time, but for not more than two months, shall be exempt from submitting an official's asset declaration.
5. A candidate for member of the Parliament of Georgia shall, within one week after registration as a candidate, complete and submit an official's asset declaration according to the simplified procedure determined by the Government of Georgia, except when he/she has completed the declaration that year under this article.
- 5¹. A person registered as a candidate participating in a competition to occupy a vacant position of judge of a district (city) or a court of appeals shall complete and submit an official's asset declaration within the time limit established by paragraph 5² of this article. The declaration shall be public and shall immediately be published on the webpage as provided for in the same paragraph.
- 5². A person registered as a candidate under Article 34¹(8) of the Organic Law of Georgia on General Courts shall, within three days of the expiry of the time limit for considering an appeal provided for by paragraph 5 of that article, complete and submit an official's asset declaration. The declaration shall be public and shall immediately be published on the official webpage of the Anti-Corruption Bureau.

6. The property data shall be entered into an official's asset declaration as of the 1st day of the month of completing the declaration, revenues/expenses shall be entered as of the year preceding the year of completing the declaration, and the accounts and/or deposits opened in a banking and/or another credit institution of Georgia or another country, which an official or his/her family member is entitled to administer, shall be entered as of the 1st day of the month of completing the declaration.

7. The data on cash money owned by an official or his/her family member, which exceeds GEL 10 000, shall be entered into an official's asset declaration as of the date of completion of the declaration.

8. An official shall complete an official's asset declaration once a year. If the person has already submitted the declaration and during the same year the ground for completing the declaration arises again, the official shall be exempt from completing the declaration again.

9. Based on the written request of authorised persons, officials and/or persons dismissed from public institutions under paragraph 10 this article, the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall issue details for logging in the Unified Declaration Electronic System and shall explain to the person the responsibility under the legislation of Georgia for failure to submit an official's asset declaration within the established period of time.

10. The head of the human resources management unit of a respective public institution, or duly authorised person, shall inform the Anti-Corruption Bureau in writing of the appointment to or dismissal from a declaration position of a person within seven working days after the relevant appropriate administrative act on the appointment or dismissal has been issued. In the case of failure to provide such information, the Head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall notify the head of the respective public institution of this fact, which may become grounds for the imposition of disciplinary liability on the head of the human resources management unit or duly authorised person. The imposition of disciplinary liability shall not exempt the head of the human resources management unit or duly authorised person of a respective public institution from the obligation to provide information to the Anti-Corruption Bureau of the appointment to or dismissal of the person from a declaration position.

11. In the case of expiry of the time limit determined for the issue of a decree on the imposition of a fine for failure to submit an official's asset declaration, a two-month period provided for the completion of the declaration shall be calculated from the date when information of the appointment to or dismissal of the person from a declaration position is submitted to the Anti-Corruption Bureau.

12. If an official's asset declaration contains a defect, the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall, within a one-month period after the declaration is filed, point out the said defect to a person concerned and shall fix a one-month time limit to remedy it. The declaration may not be made public or the information contained therein may not be issued as public information during the said one-month period or one-month time limit. The conduct of the procedure provided for by this paragraph shall not exempt a person from liability established by law for a defect in an official's asset declaration identified as a result of monitoring. This paragraph shall not apply to an official's asset declaration filed by a candidate for membership of the Parliament of Georgia, a person registered as a candidate participating in a competition announced for holding a vacant position of a judge of a district (city) or appellate court, or by a person registered as a candidate for the selection procedure of a candidate for judge of the Supreme Court of Georgia.

Article 18¹

1. The Anti-Corruption Bureau shall monitor the entry of full and correct data into official's asset declarations and the compliance of completed declarations with the legislation of Georgia.

2. The ground for initiating the monitoring of an official's asset declaration shall be:

- a) a random selection of the officials by the Unified Electronic Officials' Asset Declaration System;
- b) a reasoned written application;
- c) a failure to remedy the defect in the official's asset declaration within the one-month time limit provided for by Article 14(12) of this Law.

3. The state-political officials defined by the Law of Georgia on Public Service selected by the Permanent Commission set up by the Head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau and the officials selected on the basis of special factors shall also fall within the category of officials subject to annual examination. The special factors are: particular risk of corruption, high public interest, and violations revealed as a result of the monitoring.

4. In the cases provided for by paragraph 2(a) and paragraph 3 of this article, the number of officials subject to annual examination shall not exceed 5% of the total number of officials in each case.

5. In the cases provided for by paragraph 2(a) and paragraph 3 of this article, the officials subject to annual examination shall be selected in the beginning of each calendar year.

6. The Head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall determine the composition of the Standing Commission under paragraph 3 of this article. The Standing Commission shall not be composed of public servants.

7. Official's asset declarations shall be monitored based on the principle of confidentiality. The results of the monitoring shall be proactively published at the end of each calendar year.

8. If the monitoring of the official's asset declaration has been initiated, the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall notify the respective official of the initiation of the monitoring as determined by the legislation of Georgia and shall allow a period of 10 working days for the submission by the official of information and documents (including those issued by banking and/or other credit institutions) necessary for the monitoring, and his/her personal opinion.

9. Official's asset declarations shall be monitored by verifying the accuracy of data in completed declarations in the electronic databases administered by public institutions, by verifying the evidence submitted by the official to the Anti-Corruption Bureau and/or other written evidence, and through the performance by administrative bodies of the obligation of assistance provided for by Articles 16-19 of the General Administrative Code of Georgia.

10. The Government of Georgia shall provide instructions on the monitoring of official's asset declarations subject to examination.

11. Based on the results of the monitoring of official's asset declarations, the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall take one of the following decisions on:

- a) the non-existence of a violation in the official's asset declaration;
- b) the existence of a violation in the official's asset declaration;
- c) the existence of a minor violation in the official's asset declaration.

12. According to paragraph 11(b) of this article, the official's asset declaration shall be assessed negatively if the information and documents requested by the Anti-Corruption Bureau are not submitted or are incomplete or incorrect data or data incompatible with the Law of Georgia on Public Service are revealed in the declaration.

13. If incomplete or incorrect data are entered into the official's asset declaration wilfully as provided for by paragraph 11(b) of this article, and if there are essential elements of an offence, the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall forward the respective declaration and materials of the proceedings to the relevant law enforcement body for further response.

13¹. The Anti-Corruption Bureau shall take a decision on the existence of a minor violation in an official's asset declaration in accordance with paragraph 11(c) of this article (except for cases provided for by paragraph 13² of the same article) if there are the following errors in the official's asset declaration:

- a) in the case of ownership of immovable property, an error in specifying a residential space in the declaration does not exceed 30% of the registered area but not more than 60 m²; an error in specifying a non-residential space does not exceed 30% of the registered area but not more than 30 m²; an error in specifying an area of a plot of non-agricultural land does not exceed 20% of the registered area but not more than 1000 m²; no information of a co-owner is indicated therein;
- b) in the case of an account and/or deposit opened in a banking and/or another credit institution of Georgia or another country, which the person or his/her family member is entitled to administer, the total error in the balance/balances box is not more than GEL 1 000; an account and/or deposit in a banking and/or another credit institution of Georgia or another country, which the person or his/her family member is entitled to administer, has not been declared, however it is revealed that there was no turnover in this account during the reporting period, or no other banking transaction was carried out, or there was a turnover but not more than GEL 1 000;
- c) information on the direct or indirect participation of the person or his / her family member in the activities of an enterprise in Georgia or other country does not specify an enterprise, in the activities of which the official or his/her family member participates directly or indirectly and which did not have any turnover and did not carry out transactions within 3 years or more than 3 years before the date of completion of the declaration, or there was a turnover of not more than GEL 2 000 within a year;
- d) in the case of the performance by an official or his/her family member of any paid work in Georgia or another country, a discrepancy between the pay specified in the declaration and the actual data is not more than GEL 1 000;
- e) information on the performance by an official or his/her family member of any paid work in Georgia or another country is not specified, however, it has been revealed that the remuneration received for performing this work during the reporting period is not more than GEL 1 000;
- f) in the case of concluding of any agreement in Georgia or another country by an official or his/her family member, an error identified in calculating the material benefit received from the agreement is not more than GEL 2 000.

13². The Anti-Corruption Bureau shall take a decision on the absence of a violation in an official's asset declaration in accordance with paragraph 11(a) of this article irrespective of presence of the following errors in the official's asset declaration:

- a) in the case of ownership of immovable property, an error in specifying a residential space in the declaration does not exceed 10% of the registered area but not more than 20 m²; an error in specifying a non-residential space does not exceed 10% of the registered area but not more than 10 m²; an error in specifying an area of a plot of non-agricultural land does not exceed 10% of the registered area but not more than 100 m²; an error in specifying an area of a plot of agricultural land does not exceed 10% of the registered area but not more than 300 m²; immovable property has been erroneously indicated as the property of a family member of the official and/or the official has been indicated as the owner of the property owned by his/her family member; or inaccurate information has been specified about a co-owner;

country, which the person or his/her family member is entitled to administer, the total error in the balance/balances box is not more than GEL 500; an account and/or deposit in a banking and/or other credit institution of Georgia or other country, which the person or his/her family member is entitled to administer, has not been declared, however it is revealed that there was no turnover in this account during the reporting period, or no other banking transaction was carried out, or there was a turnover but not more than GEL 200;

c) information on the direct or indirect participation of the person or his / her family member in the activities of an enterprise in Georgia or another country does not specify an enterprise, in the activities of which the official or his/her family member participates directly or indirectly and which did not have any turnover and did not carry out transactions within 6 years or more than 6 years before the date of completion of the declaration, or there was a turnover of not more than GEL 500 within a year;

d) in the case of the performance by an official or his/her family member of any paid work in Georgia or another country, a discrepancy between the pay specified in the declaration and the actual data is not more than GEL 500;

e) in the case of concluding of any agreement in Georgia or another country by an official or his/her family member, an error identified in calculating the material benefit received from the agreement is not more than GEL 1 000.

14. The culpable violation of the principle of confidentiality under paragraph 7 of this article by a public servant, unless this violation constitutes a crime or an administrative offence, shall result in disciplinary liability of the public servant as determined by law.

1. Any person may request to receive a copy of a completed official's asset declaration and review it, except for the personal number, address of the place of permanent residence and telephone number, information related to the period before first appointment and/or the period after dismissal provided for by Article 15(j) of this Law, and the secret field of the declaration, also except for declarations of those officials whose positions are assigned security classification markings according to the Law of Georgia on State Secrets.

2. No obstruction shall be established or created for the receipt of a copy of a declaration.

3. To receive a copy of a declaration and copies of other materials relating to the declaration submitted by an official to the Anti-Corruption Bureau as determined by the legislation of Georgia, a fee for making a copy of public information shall be paid as determined by the Law of Georgia on the Fee for Making a Copy of Public Information.

Article 20

1. A failure to file an official's asset declaration within the time limit provided for by Article 14 of this Law or failure to remedy a defect in an official's asset declaration within the one-month time limit provided for by Article 14(12) of this Law shall carry a fine for a person in the amount of GEL 1 000, with respect to which an individual administrative act – a decree on imposing a fine – shall be issued.

¹. Where so provided for by Article 18¹(11)(b) of this Law, an official shall be fined in the amount 20% of his/her official salary but not less than GEL 500, and a person dismissed from office shall be fined in the amount of 20% of the last official salary he/she received during his/her holding of office but not less than GEL 500, with respect to which an individual administrative act – a decree – shall be issued. This paragraph shall not apply to a person concerned if the decision provided for by Article 18¹(11)(b) of this Law is based only on a breach (only on a defect in the official's asset declaration) for which that person has been fined under paragraph 1 of this article.

1². Where so provided for by Article 18¹(11)(c) of this Law, an official shall be given a warning, with respect to which an individual administrative act – a decree – shall be issued. This paragraph shall not apply to a person concerned if the decision provided for by Article 18¹(11)(c) of this Law is based only on a breach (only on a defect in the official's asset declaration) for which that person has been fined under paragraph 1 of this article.

1³. Evading the undergoing of a drug test or the submission of a respective certificate as provided for by Article 13⁶ of this Law shall result in the official being fined in the amount of GEL 500, for which an individual administrative act – a decree on imposing a fine – shall be issued. This decree shall be public and shall be published on the official website of the Anti-Corruption Bureau.

2. A decree imposing a fine shall be issued by the Head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau through simple administrative proceedings. The official shall pay the fine not later than 30 days after being presented officially with the decree. The fine shall be deemed paid upon the submission of the document evidencing payment of the fine to the Anti-Corruption Bureau. Payment of a fine under paragraph 1 of this article shall not exempt the official from the obligation of submitting an official's asset declaration.

2¹. A decree giving a warning shall be issued by the Head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau through simple administrative proceedings. If a minor violation is revealed in the next monitoring of official's asset declarations, the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall adopt a decision provided for by Article 18¹(11)(b) of this Law.

3. Appealing a decree imposing a fine shall not delay its execution.

4. Failure of an official to submit an official's asset declaration within two weeks after the date of entry into force of a decree imposing a fine under paragraph 1 of this article or of a court decision (ruling) shall result in the imposition of criminal liability on that official. The imposition of criminal liability shall not exempt the official from the obligation of submitting an official's asset declaration. In such case, the official shall submit the declaration within two weeks after the date when the judgment of conviction enters into force.

5. If the public servant who is subject to disciplinary liability according to the legislation of Georgia violates this Law intentionally or negligently, unless this violation constitutes a crime or an administrative offence, shall result in disciplinary liability of the public servant as determined by law.

6. If the public servant who has violated this Law and on whom has been imposed a disciplinary measure for such act, except for dismissal, commits an offence provided for by this Law again within three years, he/she shall be dismissed from office.

7. The Anti-Corruption Bureau shall deliver the notification or an individual administrative act provided for by this Chapter to a proper person through the Unified Declaration Electronic System. The notification or the individual administrative act shall be deemed delivered to this person from the moment it is recorded in the said system.

Chapter V¹ – Whistle-blower Protection

Law of Georgia No 1157 of 27 March 2009 – LHG I, No 9, 13.4.2009, Art. 40

Article 20¹

For the purposes of this chapter, the terms used herein shall have the following meanings:

- a) disclosure – disclosure made by a person (whistle-blower) to a body in charge of the review of whistle-blower's applications, an investigator, a prosecutor and/or the Public Defender of Georgia regarding the violation by a public servant (disclosed person) of the legislation of Georgia or the general rules of ethics and conduct, if any, which prejudices or may prejudice the public interests and the reputation of a respective public institution. Disclosure shall also be informing by a whistle-blower of the public and mass media after the body in charge of the review of whistle-blower's applications, an investigator, a prosecutor or the Public Defender of Georgia makes a relevant decision;
- b) anonymous disclosure – disclosure made by an unidentified whistle-blower;

- c) body in charge of the review of whistle-blower's applications – a structural division in charge of internal control and/or official inspection of a respective public institution;
- d) coercive measures – disciplinary measures provided for by the Law of Georgia on Public Service, or the change of the place of work of a whistle-blower without his/her consent, toughening of the terms and conditions of his/her employment agreement, refusal of recruitment, reinstatement or promotion and/or other actions that have caused or may cause the limitation of official powers of a whistle-blower or worsening of his/her of official position and/or working conditions;
- e) whistle-blower's close relative – a whistle-blower's parent, adoptive parent, child (stepchild), foster child, grandfather, grandmother, grandchild, sister, brother, spouse (including a divorced spouse), or a person permanently residing with the whistle-blower.

1. Disclosure may be made in writing, orally, electronically, by telephone, fax, through the website administered by the Anti-Corruption Bureau or other means.

2. Disclosure may be anonymous.

3. If a whistle-blower does not express in writing his/her consent to release his/her identity, the body in charge of the review of whistle-blower's applications shall not disclose the whistle-blower's identity.

4. The culpable violation by a public servant of this article, unless this violation constitutes a crime or an administrative offence, shall result in disciplinary liability as determined by law.

5. The Anti-Corruption Bureau shall be authorized to provide legal and/or psychological counselling to a whistle-blower and to forward information, document or evidence relating to the fact of incrimination to the appropriate body/official for responding to it. The procedure for the Anti-Corruption Bureau to exercise the power provided for by this paragraph shall be established by an order of the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau.

1. It shall be inadmissible to intimidate, harass, coerce, humiliate, persecute, oppress or cause moral or material damage to a whistle-blower or his/her close relatives, to use violence or offer violence, to treat a whistle-blower on a discriminatory basis or perform other illegal actions in connection with the fact of incrimination.

2. It shall be inadmissible to initiate administrative or civil proceedings or criminal prosecution against a whistle-blower or to impose a respective liability on him/her, or to apply coercive measures against him/her due to circumstances connected with the fact of incrimination.

3. If disciplinary, administrative, civil or criminal proceedings are being conducted against a whistle-blower, they shall be suspended, except when:

a) disciplinary, administrative, civil or criminal proceedings are not related to the act of incrimination;

b) the use of the protection guarantees determined by this article infringes the sovereignty and security of the State, the overthrow of its constitutional system, or causes ethnic or religious tensions.

4. Where coercive measures are applied and administrative, civil and criminal proceedings are conducted against a whistle-blower, the respective public institution shall substantiate that they are not connected to the act of incrimination and these measures and proceedings are conducted on grounds provided for by the legislation of Georgia.

5. The head of the respective public institution shall monitor the provision of protection guarantees determined by this article to a whistle-blower.

6. If, in the course of criminal procedure, at any stage of proceedings connected to the act of disclosure, the life, health or property of a whistle-blower, his/her close relative or witness is prejudiced due to being involved in these proceedings, the whistle-blower, his/her close relative, witness or the body in charge of the review of whistle-blower's applications may apply to the Prosecutor's Office of Georgia to apply special protection actions provided for by the Criminal Procedure Code of Georgia.

7. In the case of violations of the provisions of this article by the body in charge of the review of whistle-blower's applications or the respective public institution, a whistle-blower may file a complaint about such violations as determined by the administrative legislation of Georgia.

Article 20⁵

Whistle-blowers shall enjoy protection guarantees irrespective of whether the information disclosed as a result of incrimination is true or false, except when:

- a) the information disclosed as a result of incrimination is false and the whistle-blower was aware or should have been aware of this fact because he/she could verify the accuracy of the information necessary for incrimination, except when the whistle-blower took all possible measures to verify the information but was not able to ascertain its falseness;
- b) the whistle-blower acts for his/her own or another person's distinction, except when being granted with a special award determined by the legislation of Georgia;
- c) the whistle-blower is aware that the factual circumstances of the incrimination are publicly known or are known to the body in charge of the review of whistle-blower's applications.

Article 20⁶

1. The body in charge of reviewing an application shall consider an application of incrimination within one month after it has been filed, under the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia and its own Statute, or through an official administrative procedure established by the General Administrative Code of Georgia if the related procedures are not in place.

2. If, after consideration of an application of incrimination, it becomes known that the committed offence may be the grounds for imposition on the disclosed person of administrative, civil or criminal liability, the body in charge of the review of whistle-blower's applications shall apply to the relevant competent bodies.

3. The legal proceedings suspended according to Article 20⁴(3) of this Law shall be resumed after the body in charge of the review of whistle-blower's applications files the appropriate application.

Law of Georgia No 4212 of 29 May 2024 – website, 12.6.2024

1. The Anti-Corruption Bureau shall be managed by the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau.

2. The head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall be appointed by the Prime Minister of Georgia in accordance with procedures established by this article. Candidates for the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall be selected in accordance with procedures established by this article, through a competition for the selection of candidates for the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau. A competition commission for the selection of candidates for the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau ('a competition commission') shall nominate these candidates to the Prime Minister of Georgia, in accordance with procedures established by the same article, for the appointment of one of them to the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau.

3. A citizen of Georgia who has no criminal record and has higher education in law, at least 5 years of work experience in the system of justice and law enforcement bodies or the area of human rights, as well as a high professional and moral reputation, may be appointed to the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau.

4. A competition to select candidates for the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau ('a competition') shall be announced not earlier than 10 weeks and not later than 9 weeks before the expiry of the term of office of the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau, and in the case of the early termination of the powers of the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau, within 1 week after the early termination of his/her powers. A competition shall be announced by the Prime Minister of Georgia by issuing an appropriate order to that effect. The Prime Minister shall set up a competition commission by the same order. The order shall be published on the website of the Government of Georgia.

5. The entities (relevant bodies and officials) provided for by this paragraph shall, within 1 week of the announcement of the competition, communicate to the Prime Minister of Georgia the names of the members of a competition commission. The full composition of a competition commission shall include the following 7 members:

- a) a representative of the Government of Georgia;
- b) the chairperson of the Human Rights and Civil Integration Committee of the Parliament of Georgia;
- c) the chairperson of the Legal Issues Committee of the Parliament of Georgia;
- d) the first deputy or the deputy chairperson of the Supreme Court of Georgia;
- e) the first deputy or the deputy General Prosecutor of Georgia;
- f) the Public Defender of Georgia or a representative of the Public Defender of Georgia;
- g) a representative of non-entrepreneurial (non-commercial) legal persons with respective knowledge and experience, selected by the Public Defender of Georgia through an open competition.

6. The Prime Minister of Georgia shall approve the composition of a competition commission by an order and call the first meeting of a competition commission within 1 week after the expiry of the deadline for communicating the names of the members of a competition commission to the Prime Minister of Georgia. A competition commission shall elect a chairperson of the competition commission from among its members at the first meeting. A meeting of a competition commission, including the first meeting of a competition commission, shall be duly constituted if it is attended by a majority of the total number of members of the competition commission. A competition commission shall make a decision by a majority of votes of the members of the competition commission attending the meeting.

7. A competition commission shall, within 1 week after holding the first meeting, approve the statute of the competition commission, which shall lay down the rules of operation of the competition commission, conditions for participating in a competition, and the time limit and procedure for submitting applications to participate in a competition. A competition commission shall, within 1 week after holding the first meeting, also ensure that information about the conditions for participating in a competition and the time limit and procedure for submitting applications to participate in a competition is published on the website of the Government of Georgia.

8. A competition commission shall, within 2 weeks after the expiry of the time limit for submitting applications to participate in a competition, select from among the participants in the competition and nominate to the Prime Minister of Georgia not less than 2 and not more than 5 candidates for the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau. If 2 or more applications to participate in a competition are not submitted to a competition commission within the time limit for submitting applications, or a competition commission fails to nominate to the Prime Minister of Georgia not less than 2 and not more than 5 candidates for the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Commission, the competition commission shall make a decision to extend the time limit for submitting applications to participate in a competition, after which the procedure laid down in this paragraph shall be repeated.

9. The Prime Minister of Georgia shall, within 1 week after a competition commission nominates candidates for the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau, appoint one of these candidates to the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau or give a reasoned refusal to appoint one of the candidates to the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau by issuing an appropriate order to that effect. This order shall be published on the website of the Government of Georgia and enter into force from the moment of its publication. The order may be appealed to a court. If the Prime Minister of Georgia does not appoint the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau within the time limit established by this paragraph, the competition commission shall make a decision to extend the time limit for submitting applications, after which the procedures laid down in paragraph 8 of this article and this paragraph shall be repeated.

10. The term of office of the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall be 6 years. If a new head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau is not appointed by the expiry of this term, the term of office of the current head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall be extended until the start of the term of office of a new head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau. If the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau is appointed to the position before the expiry of the 6-year term of office of the current head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau, the term of office of a new head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall start on the day following the expiry of this term, and if the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau is appointed to the position after the expiry of the 6-year term of office of the current head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau or after the early termination of the term of office of the current head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau, the term of office of a new head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall start on the day following his/her appointment to the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau.

1. The head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall:

- a) manage the Anti-Corruption Bureau and make decisions on issues related to the activities of the Anti-Corruption Bureau;
- b) determine the structure of the Anti-Corruption Bureau and the respective powers of its structural units;

- c) approve the staff list of the Anti-Corruption Bureau and the procedure for and amounts of their remuneration;
- d) appoint and dismiss employees of the Anti-Corruption Bureau, including the first deputy and deputy head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau;
- e) determine appropriate powers of employees of the Anti-Corruption Bureau, including the first deputy and deputy head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau, delegate the powers to the first deputy and deputy head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau;
- f) ensure the protection and targeted use of the property transferred to the Anti-Corruption Bureau;
- g) represent the Anti-Corruption Bureau in legal relations with others;
- h) exercise other powers in accordance with law.

2. The head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall issue, within his/her powers, subordinate normative acts – orders – on issues related to the activities of the Anti-Corruption Bureau.

3. The head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall issue, within his/her powers, individual legal acts – orders, decrees and decisions.

4. The head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall issue recommendations on behalf of the Anti-Corruption Bureau in the exercise of the functions defined by law for the Anti-Corruption Bureau.

5. The head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall be inviolable. The head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau may be criminally prosecuted, arrested or detained, his/her place of residence or work, car may be searched or his/her personal search may be conducted only with the preliminary consent of the Parliament of Georgia. Catching at the scene of the crime shall be an exception to be immediately communicated to the Parliament of Georgia. If the Parliament of Georgia fails to give consent within 48 hours, the arrested or detained head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau must be immediately released. If the Parliament of Georgia gives consent to the arrest or detention of the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau, his/her powers shall be suspended by a resolution of the Parliament of Georgia until the resolution/ruling on terminating the criminal prosecution is passed or the court judgment becomes legally effective.

Law of Georgia No 4212 of 29 May 2024 – website, 12.6.2024

1. The position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall be incompatible with the membership of state authorities or representative bodies of municipalities, with any position in state service and public service, other positions and remunerative activity, other than scientific, pedagogic and artistic activities. The head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau may not engage in entrepreneurial activities, directly exercise the powers of a permanent head of a business entity, a member of a supervisory, control, audit or advisory body, be a member of any citizens' political association (political party), or participate in political activities.

2. The head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall not participate in assemblies or manifestations in support of or against a citizens' political association (political party).

3. A person appointed to the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall cease to carry out activities incompatible with the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau within 10 days from his/her appointment, or resign from the position incompatible with the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau. During this period, incompatibility with the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall not serve as a ground for the early termination of his/her powers. Failure of the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau to fulfil the requirement provided for by this paragraph within the above period shall serve as a ground for the early termination of his/her powers.

Law of Georgia No 2204 of 30 November 2022 – website, 15.12.2022

1. The grounds for the early termination of the powers of the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau shall be one of the following circumstances:

a) he/she submits to the Prime Minister of Georgia a personal application for resignation from the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau;

b) his/her citizenship of Georgia is terminated;

c) he/she dies or has been declared dead or missing;

d) a court judgment of conviction has entered into force against him/her;

e) he/she has been recognised as a beneficiary of support by a legally effective court decision, provided that the court decision rules out a proper exercise of his/her powers by the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau;

f) he/she fails to perform the duties of the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau for 4 consecutive months unless this was inevitably caused by the performance by the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau of the duties prescribed by law;

g) he/she holds a position incompatible with the position of the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau or carries out activities incompatible with the position of the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau, in violation of any requirement of Article 20¹⁸ of this Law;

h) he/she consumes drugs or evades taking a mandatory drug test.

2. If any of the circumstances provided for by paragraph 1 of this article or Article 2018(3) of this Law occurs, the Prime Minister of Georgia shall, by issuing an order, decide on the early termination of the powers of the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau on appropriate grounds. This order shall be published on the website of the Government of Georgia and enter into force from the moment of its publication. The order may be appealed to a court. Appealing against such order shall not suspend its effect.

3. If the powers of the head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau are terminated early on the ground provided for by paragraph (1)(c) of this article, his/her powers shall be deemed terminated early from the moment of the occurrence of the circumstance referred to in the same paragraph, and if his/her powers are terminated early on other grounds, from the moment of the entry into force of a respective order of the Prime Minister of Georgia.

4. If any of the circumstances referred to in paragraphs (a-e) and (h) of paragraph 1 of this article occurs with regard to a person during the period from his/her appointment to the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau to the start of his/her term of office, the Prime Minister of Georgia shall decide on invalidating the order appointing the person to the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau. The decision (order) issued by the Prime Minister of Georgia on this matter shall be published on the website of the Government of Georgia and enter into force from the moment of its publication. This decision may be appealed to a court. Appealing against such decision shall not suspend its effect. If an order appointing the person to the position of head of the Anti-Corruption Bureau is invalidated, a competition shall be announced immediately, after which the procedures established by Article 2016 of this Law shall be repeated.
