

Law of Georgia

on Notaries

This Law determines the legal basis for arranging the notarial system and the official activities of a notary public, and the basic requirements of the performance of notarial actions and any other actions related thereto.

Chapter I – General Provisions

Article 1 – Notaries

1. A notary shall be a public law institution which aims to notarise legal facts and legal relations between persons within the scope established by the State.
2. The state regulation of notaries shall be carried out by the Ministry of Justice of Georgia (the Ministry of Justice) on the basis of the legislation of Georgia.

Article 2 – Legal basis for the activities of notaries

The legal basis for the activities of notaries shall be the Constitution of Georgia, the treaties and international agreements of Georgia, this Law, and other legislative and subordinate normative acts of Georgia.

Article 3 – Notary public

1. A notary public shall be independent in his/her professional activities and shall exercise state authority through notarial and other related actions on the basis of this Law and other legal acts.
2. When performing notarial actions, a notary public shall be independent and impartial.
3. Notarial actions shall be performed in accordance with the procedures and the scope established by the legislation of Georgia. The activities of a notary public shall not be entrepreneurial activities and a source of profit.
4. The compensation paid to a notary public for his/her official activities shall belong to the notary public.
5. A notary public shall be the employer of the staff in his/her notarial office.
6. A notary public shall be liable for any damage caused by his/her official activities. The State shall not be liable for damage caused by a notary public.
7. The disciplinary liabilities of a notary public shall be determined by a regulation, which shall be approved by the Minister of Justice of Georgia (the Minister of Justice) on the recommendation of the Notary Chamber of Georgia.
8. A notary public shall fulfil the duty provided for by the Law of Georgia on Facilitation of Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorism Financing and the appropriate normative acts.
9. A notary public shall not be a public officer.

Article 4 – The Notary Chamber of Georgia and other notary associations

1. The Notary Chamber of Georgia shall be the association of public notaries founded on the basis of the principle of self-government and is based on the compulsory membership of public notaries. Notaries public may join associations of public notaries on the voluntary basis.
2. The Notary Chamber of Georgia shall represent and protect the interests of public notaries, assist them in notarial activities, organise the internship of candidates for public notaries, and ensure the raising of qualification of public notaries.
3. The Notary Chamber of Georgia shall ensure the engagement of public notaries in the settlement of problems related to notarial activities, and in the realisation of the common professional interests of public notaries.
4. The higher management body of the Notary Chamber of Georgia is the general meeting of members of the Notary Chamber of Georgia, and the executive and regulatory body shall be the board of the Notary Chamber of Georgia.
5. The Notary Chamber of Georgia shall be a legal entity under public law.

Article 5 – Notarial action

1. In the cases provided for by this Law, a notarial action shall be performed by a notary public at the request of a natural or legal person, and such action shall have legal consequences. A notarised document shall have indisputable evidential force.
2. Procedures for performing a notarial action shall be determined by an instruction approved by the Minister of Justice on the recommendation of the Notary Chamber of Georgia, in accordance with the procedure established by the laws of Georgia.

Article 6 – Language of a notarial action

1. A notarial action shall be performed in the official language.
- 1¹. If a person requesting the performance of a notarial action is deaf or hard of hearing, the notarial action shall be performed with the participation of an interpreter having a command of the sign language (a sign language translator), except as provided for by the legislation of Georgia when a person has the right to conclude a transaction without participation of an interpreter.
2. If a person requesting the performance of a notarial action does not speak the official language, a notary public shall perform the notarial action with the participation of an interpreter.

Article 7 – Legal disputes arising during the performance of a notarial action

Legal disputes arising during the performance of a notarial action shall be heard in a court procedure.

Article 8 – Confidentiality of notarial actions

1. A public notary shall be obliged to keep confidentiality of data made known to him/her in relation to his/her official activities (taking into account Article 50(4) of the Criminal Procedure Code of Georgia), unless otherwise provided for by this article. The obligation shall be effective even after the notary public has been dismissed from his/her position.

2. A public notary shall provide information on a notarial action only to a natural or a legal person, at whose request, or with regard to whom the notarial action was performed, or to a representative of the natural or legal person. Chapter II – Position of a Notary Public

Article 11 – Conditions for occupying a position of notary public

1. A position of notary public may be occupied, in accordance with the procedures provided for by this Law, by a legally competent citizen of Georgia, with higher education in law, who has completed the internship as a notary public, or has at least 1 year of experience of working as a notary public, or at least 5 years of experience of working in a public service by speciality, and who has passed a qualification exam for notaries public.

2. A person shall be released from the obligation to pass a qualification exam for notaries public if he/she holds an Academic Degree of the Doctor, or an equivalent scientific degree, in the fields of civil law, international private law, or civil procedure law.

2¹. For the first three years, a newly appointed notary public shall perform notarial activities in a high mountainous settlement, or in such settlement where notarial services are not duly available. For the purposes of this Law, the status of a high mountainous settlement shall be determined in accordance with the procedure established by the Law of Georgia on the Development of High Mountainous Regions.

2². A list of settlements (including high mountainous settlements) where notarial services are not duly available shall be determined by the Minister of Justice in accordance with the procedure established by Article 16(5) of this Law.

2³. A notary public referred to in paragraph (2¹) of this article shall be provided with adequate financial support by the Notary Chamber of Georgia during the whole period of the performance of notarial activities in a relevant settlement. The procedure for providing a notary public with financial support shall be established by the Notary Chamber of Georgia in agreement with the Minister of Justice.

2⁴. After the expiry of the 3-year period referred to in paragraph (2¹) of this article, a notary public may continue notarial activities in the same settlement, or in any other settlement of Georgia. If, by the time of the continuance of notarial activities by a notary public, the settlement has already been included in the list referred to in paragraph (2²) of this article, the notary public shall be provided with adequate financial support by the Notary Chamber of Georgia in accordance with the procedure established by paragraph (2³) of this article during the appropriate period of performing notarial activities.

2⁵. A notary public who establishes a notary office in a settlement provided for by paragraph (2¹) of this article shall be provided with adequate financial support by the Notary Chamber of Georgia in accordance with the procedure established by paragraph (2³) of this article during the appropriate period of performing notarial activities.

3. The age limit for occupying the position of a notary public shall be 65. The Minister of Justice shall be entitled to prolong the term of office of a notary public by at least five years on the basis of an application of a notary public and the justified recommendation of the Notary Chamber of Georgia.

Article 19¹ – Organisation of notarial activities

1. A common office as provided for by Article 19(3) of this Law may also be established in the form of an entrepreneurial legal entity, except for a joint stock company, as determined by the Law of Georgia on Entrepreneurs. The rights and obligations of the partners of an entrepreneurial legal entity shall be determined by an agreement concluded between them (a partners' agreement/statute of partners). The agreement (the partners' agreement/statute of partners) shall consider a decisive vote of a notary public at a partners' meeting or in any other managing body of the company when making a decision on matters related to notarial activities. A notary public who is a partner of an entrepreneurial legal entity shall perform notarial actions in his/her own name and shall be jointly liable together with the said legal entity for any damage caused by a notarial action.

2. In the case of establishing an entrepreneurial legal entity as provided for by paragraph (1) of this article, the corporate name of the company shall contain the name of at least one notary public who is a partner of the entrepreneurial legal entity.

3. To obtain the consent provided for by Article 19(3) of this Law, the founders of an entrepreneurial legal entity shall submit a plan for the improvement of services and a draft agreement (a partners' agreement /statute of partners) concluded between the partners. To register an entrepreneurial legal entity as provided for by this article, the consent of the Ministry of Justice shall be submitted to the legal entity under public law called the National Agency for Public Registry under the auspices of the Ministry of Justice of Georgia.

4. A notary public may not be a person employed by an entrepreneurial legal entity provided for by this article on the basis of a labour contract.

5. Other matters related to the organisation of notarial activities in accordance with this article, and the guarantee of independence of a notary public, shall be determined by an order of the Minister of Justice.

Article 39 – Powers to provide a registration service

A notary public is authorised to ensure the submission of an application and a registration document in electronic and/or material form to the body engaged in maintaining the State Registry, in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia, if a document certified on the basis of the notary service is subject to registration, as well as to ensure the registration of records on rights, the amendments to rights and/or the termination of rights, in the authority delegated by the body engaged in maintaining the State Registry (with the Registry of rights to immovable things, the Registry of Entrepreneurs and Non-entrepreneurial (Non-commercial) Legal Persons, as well as with other Registries provided for by the legislation of Georgia).

Law of Georgia No 5851 of 16 March 2012 – website, 23.3.2012

Article 40 – Enforcement on the basis of a notarial document

1. A notary public shall issue a writ of execution on the basis of a written application of a creditor (or his/her legal successor). The application shall be accompanied by a notarial document on the basis of which the applicant requests the issuance of a writ of execution. The application of the creditor (or his/her legal successor) on the issuance of a writ of execution shall include:

- a) the identity of the notary public whom he/she is addressing with an application;
- b) the identities/names of the parties and their representatives;
- c) data on the volume of the principal and additional outstanding obligations;
- d) the reference to the fact that a non-fulfilled request for the execution of which the issuance of a writ of execution will be required is not dependent on the fulfilment of any retaliatory (equivalent) obligation by the applicant, or the reference to the fact that he/she has already fulfilled such obligation;
- e) the signature of the applicant.

2. When the grounds determined by this article exist, a notary public shall issue a writ of execution without requesting the documents confirming the non-fulfilment of obligations.

3. The following persons shall be authorised to issue a writ of execution, in the order determined by this paragraph:

- a) a notary public who has notarised the transaction in accordance with a notarial procedure, or a person substituting the notary public;
- b) another acting notary public if the powers of a notary public provided for by sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph are suspended or terminated.

4. Enforcement shall be permitted on the basis of an original writ of execution issued by a notary public. In the case of the loss of a writ of execution, a notary public shall issue an authenticated copy (duplicate) of the writ of execution in the order determined by paragraph (3) of this article, and if the duplicate cannot be issued under such procedure, it shall be issued by the Notary Chamber of Georgia.

5. Enforcement on the basis of a writ of execution issued by a notary public shall be carried out in accordance with the Law of Georgia on Enforcement Proceedings. An appeal against a writ of execution and/or a notarial document for the enforcement of which the writ of execution has been issued shall not suspend the enforcement proceedings.

6. The procedure for issuing a writ of execution shall be established by the Instruction on the Procedure for Performing Notarial Actions.

Article 44 – Performance of notarial actions

A notarial action may be performed by any notary public upon the request of a person.

Article 45 – Time limit for performing a notarial action

A notarial action shall be performed after the submission of all documents required therefor.

Article 46 – Postponement and suspension of the performance of notarial actions

1. The performance of a notarial action may be postponed:

a) if additional data or documents are requested, until the receipt of such data and documents;

b) if an expert examination is being carried out, before the receipt of the report on such expert examination;

c) upon the request of an interested person who intends to apply to a court to challenge a right or a fact the authentication of which is requested by another person. In this case, a notary public may postpone the performance of a notarial action for not more than 10 days. If within the period specified by a notary public a notification on filing an application by an interested person is not received from a court, the notary public shall complete the notarial action.

2. The performance of a notarial action shall be suspended on the basis of an appropriate notification from a court until a legal dispute is resolved in the court.

3. When the performance of a notarial action is postponed or suspended, a notary public shall not issue a notarised document or a certificate and shall issue a resolution on the postponement or suspension of a notarial action within two days from the postponement or suspension of the notarial action. Where necessary, a notary public shall indicate in the resolution that the powers and legal capability of a person have been verified.

Article 47 – Limitation of the right to perform a notarial action

1. Notaries public and persons performing notarial actions in accordance with Articles 42 and 43 of this Law shall have no right to perform a notarial action to which the said persons, their parents, spouse, children, grandchildren, grandparents, brothers, sisters and children of a spouse (personally or through a representative) are the participants.

2. A notary public shall have no right to certify a transaction where a participant is an enterprise which has been founded on the basis of the capital of such notary public, his/her spouse, parent, child, sister or brother, and where the notary public is aware of the fact.

3. A notarial action performed in violation of this article shall be void.

Law of Georgia No 1968 of 5 February 2014 – website, 19.2.2014

Article 48 – Determination of the identity, power and legal capacity of a person, verification of the power of a representative and making a request for documents

1. During the performance of notarial actions, a notary public and other officials performing notarial actions shall verify the identity of persons or their representatives requesting the performance of a notarial action, on the basis of the identity documents of such persons.

2. When certifying a transaction in the cases provided for by law, or upon the request of the parties, a notary public shall verify the power and legal capacity of persons participating in the transaction.

3. If a transaction is carried out through a representative, a notary public shall also verify the authority of the representative.

4. A notary public may request from an institution, enterprise and organisation documents required for the performance of a notarial action.

Article 49 – Explanation of the content of a notarial action and its legal consequences

A notary public is obliged to explain the content and legal consequences of a notarial action to persons requesting the performance of a notarial action. A notary public is obliged to ensure that the interests of those persons who are not aware of the legislation of Georgia and are in need of legal consultations are not prejudiced.

Article 50 – The procedure for signing a notarial document

1. In the cases determined by law, a transaction document or other document shall be signed in the presence of a notary public. If a notary public was not present during the signing of a transaction document or other document, a signatory shall personally confirm that the signature belongs to him/her.

2. If a notarial document contains the demonstration of the will of a participant of a notarial action, a notary public shall read the text of the document to him/her before signing the document.

3. If a person requesting the performance of a notarial action is dumb, deaf or deaf-and-dumb, a notary public shall apply, where required, to an appropriate specialist for assistance in explaining the content and legal consequences of the notarial action to such person. The specialist shall confirm by his/her signature that the content of the notarial action was explained to the person and that it corresponds to the will of the person.

4. Instead of a person who is unable to sign a document due to an illness or a disability, the document shall be signed by another person on his/her instruction in the presence of a person performing the notarial action, with the indication of a reason due to which the person is not able to sign the document.

5. If a person requesting the performance of a notarial action is illiterate or blind, a notary public is obliged to read the text of the document to him/her and make an appropriate reference to the fact in the document.

Law of Georgia No 6834 of 14 July 2020 – website, 28.7.2020

Article 51 – Registration of notarial actions

1. Notarial actions performed by notaries public and persons provided for by Articles 42 and 43 of this Law shall be registered in the Electronic Notary Registry.

2. A performed notarial action shall be assigned its own reference number which shall be put on issued documents and endorsements.

3. A notary public shall issue an excerpt from the Electronic Notarial Registry on the basis of a written application of a person by whose request and with regard to whom a notarial action was completed, unless otherwise determined by this Law.

Law of Georgia No 1968 of 5 February 2014 – website, 19.2.2014

Article 52 – Refusal to perform a notarial action

1. A notary public and persons provided for by Articles 42 and 43 of this Law shall refuse to perform a notarial action, if:

a) the performance of a notarial action contravenes the legislation of Georgia;

b) documents submitted for the performance of a notarial action do not comply with the established requirements, or contain information degrading the honour and dignity of persons, or contravene generally recognised moral standards;

c) a participant in a notarial action is not an authorised or legally capable person, or the request for the performance of a notarial action is submitted in a language unknown to a notary public and there is no translator available.

2. The resolution of a notary public on the refusal to perform a notarial action shall be proved in writing and shall be transferred to the person in respect of whom the performance of a notarial action has been refused not later than three days from drawing up such resolution.

3. A notary public is obliged to explain the procedure and deadline for appealing a resolution to a person who was refused the performance of a notarial action.

Law of Georgia No 1968 of 5 February 2014 – website, 19.2.2014

Article 53 – Appealing a notarial action or a resolution of a notary public

1. A person interested in the performance of a notarial action, or a person who was refused the performance of a notarial action, may appeal such notarial action or resolution on refusal to perform a notarial action in a court, according to the location of the notary office in question.

2. An appeal on the activities of a notary public not provided for by paragraph (1) of this article shall be reviewed by the Ministry of Justice or the Notary Chamber of Georgia on the instruction of the Ministry of Justice.

Article 54 – Performance of notarial actions for foreign citizens and stateless persons

Foreign citizens and stateless persons may request the performance of a notarial action personally or through a representative, in accordance with the procedures applicable to citizens of Georgia.

Article 55 – Receipt of a document by a notary public which has been issued in another country

A notary public shall receive a document issued in another country if it is legalised or authenticated by apostille, in accordance with the procedures provided for by the legislation of Georgia.

Article 56 – Application of international agreements and treaties

If international agreements or treaties concluded by Georgia or to which Georgia is a party determine procedures for performing notarial actions that are different from those envisaged by the legislation of Georgia, a notary public shall accordingly apply international agreements and treaties.

Chapter V – Transitional and Final provisions

Article 57 – Transitional provisions
